Consultation on proposed changes to trains timetable

Peter Hodges
Reporter | peter@viewnews.co.uk

SEATON residents hoping to travel to Clapham Junction could find themselves in a difficult situation after a proposed new train timetable left out the UK's busiest station.

Last month, SWR announced that following its takeover of the franchise from South West Trains, it would be running a consultation period on proposed changes to the timetable.

Among the more notable proposed changes are an early-morning commuter train starting at Yeovil Junction, leaving Axminster at 8.02am and arriving in Exeter at 8.43am. There are also proposals for trains later in the evening from Exeter to Axminster.

However, this new commuter train doesn't match up with those catching the 885 bus to Axminster train station.

The new consultation has thrown up some controversy with the absence of trains stopping at Clapham Junction, a major interchange for those travelling to Gatwick Airport and the outskirts of London.

If the new timetable comes into place, passengers would need to change trains in order to reach Clapham.

Regarding the omission of Clapham Junction, the UK's busiest railway station in terms of the number of trains passing through daily, a spokesman for SWR said: "Before South Western Railway took over the franchise, we contacted key stakeholders across the route to find out what they wanted in improvements for the December 2018 timetable, and these proposals are the results of that feedback.

"Included in the things stakeholders in the East Devon area wanted were a faster and extended train service and these are reflected in the proposals.

"We published the timetable consultation for the December 2018 services for customers to feed back their comments on what we have suggested in order to deliver on our capacity and journey-time improvement plans.

"All of the comments and feedback will be taken into account when developing the final proposal for submission to the Department for Transport and Network Rail in 2018."

There is still time for people to give their views on SWR's proposals.

The consultation runs until December 22nd. Details about the plans and how to give feedback are at southwesternrailway.com/time-tableconsultation

New hospitals campaign group

FORTY concerned residents from the Axe Valley area have created a new campaign group to oppose any proposals to sell off the hospital sites in Axminster and Seaton.

The campaign group are also hoping to have their say as well on which health services are retained in the area.

County councillor Martin Shaw told the meeting that while the battle to save Seaton's hospital beds has been lost, it had put Seaton on the map in the forthcoming discussions about health services in the Axe Valley.

Seaton mayor, Councillor Jack Rowland, said that a meeting to set up a steering committee for an Axe Valley Health Hub would take place shortly.

He was encouraged that the Royal Devon and Exeter Hospital Trust was putting resources into this.

He also pointed out that more than 50 services involving more than a hundred staff were still based at the hospital.

Cllr Rowland reminded the gathered group: "Don't let anyone tell you the hospital is closed."

The meeting, chaired by Paul Arnott of the East Devon Alliance, agreed that it was necessary to establish which health services could most usefully be based in Seaton and Axminster hospitals.

One of the ideas brought up was to canvass local residents on what services they wanted to retain at their hospital and there were no shortage of volunteers offering their time to help with this.

As well as campaigning to keep services in the area, the group will also support the development of a health hub around the two hospitals, which have both seen their hospital beds removed over the last few years.

Bed closures have hit East Devon hard over the past few years, with inpatient beds being removed in Axminster, Seaton, Honiton and Ottery St Mary and only retained in Sidmouth and Exmouth.

Fear has been growing among residents in East Devon that the hospital sites in Seaton and Axminster could be sold off, the reason behind the new Axe Valley hospitals campaign.

Sir Hugo supports anaemia campaign

SIR Hugo Swire has helped raise awareness of, a 'hidden condition' which affects around 4 million in the UK.

Anaemia is a leading cause of disability, potentially costing the NHS an estimated £54 million per year.

In addition, Devon has among the highest rates of anaemia in the country, above four times the national average.

East Devon MP Sir Hugo took the simple 'finger prick' test which is able to detect anaemia instantly.

While anaemia is highly treatable, the number of patients admitted to hospital with iron deficiency anaemia has increased by 46 per cent since 2011.

This particularly affects the frail and elderly, who commonly suffer from micronutrient deficiencies, as well as vulnerable patients who suffer from other conditions affecting their gut, heart or kidneys.

Sir Hugo met with patients and clinicians to discuss how the government can improve the lives of people suffering from anaemia.

Despite its prevalence, anaemia often goes undetected due to the commonness of its symptoms which include paleness, fatigue, hair loss and shortness of breath.

The test was administered by Entia, a British startup backed by Innovate UK, which has designed a straightforward and reusable finger-prick diagnostic kit which can instantly detect anaemia. This has the potential to transform the way diagnostics are currently conducted and help patients to manage the condition.

Sir Hugo, said: "I am delighted today to be supporting this initiative, which I know affects over 4,000 people in my constituency.

"Diagnosis for anaemia and iron deficiency remain disproportionately low, and I encourage any concerned constituents to consult their GP about the matter as soon as possible."

Commenting, Michael Sobanja, chairman of the Anaemia Manifesto Committee, said: "I am delighted that Sir Hugo has come out to support our initiative.

"His attendance on the day has significantly helped move our critical issue up the political agenda, and we hope will improve care in East Devon."

Don't forget your flu jab

DOCTORS and midwives are urging pregnant women to protect themselves and their unborn child from flu by getting their free jab this winter.

Now is the ideal time to have the flu vaccination - either from a GP, maternity service provider or pharmacy - before the flu virus starts circulating.

Pregnancy naturally weakens the body's immune system and, as a result, increases the risk of a mother and unborn baby becoming seriously ill from flu.

All pregnant women are recommended to receive the flu vaccine, irrespective of their stage of pregnancy.

It is very important that pregnant women get the flu jab and protect themselves and their baby as soon as possible.

There is also strong evidence that pregnant women have an increased risk of developing complications if they get flu which can harm them and their unborn baby.

These risks include bronchitis, pneumonia and an increased risk of having a miscarriage or the baby being born prematurely or with a low birth weight.

Lorna Collingwood-Burke, chief nurse for both Devon Clinical Commissioning Groups, said: "It's important that all pregnant women protect themselves and their unborn baby by having the vaccination.

"Flu is a serious risk to both the mother and unborn baby. Pregnant women have an increased risk of developing complications from flu."

MP's trade talks at Leonardo Helicopters

INTERNATIONAL Trade Secretary Liam Fox MP joined local MP Marcus Fysh at Yeovil's Leonardo facility and a meeting with company bosses. Dr Fox, MP for North Somerset, was keen to discuss global opportunities for the iconic helicopter manufacturer as his team are developing the UK's post-Brexit trade policies.

Marcus Fysh secured a debate in Parliament to discuss the nation's military capability which is built in part on Leonardo products such as the Wildcat helicopter.

The debate followed some media speculation that military capability may be downgraded in certain areas on grounds of affordability.

Mr Fysh said: "I wanted to raise awareness of this issue and seek reassurance that any changes are well considered and deliver an appropriate level of capability as well as consideration of our indigenous defence industry as a strategic capability.

"Ultimately, like the Defence Secretary Michael Fallon, I would like to see an increase in our defence budget.

"We live in an uncertain and volatile world. Also the right investment will also support the wider military community.

"As Brexit negotiations continue our contribution towards NATO and the secu-city of Europe should come into the equation.

"I also wanted to put Yeovil and South Somerset at the heart of the debate, with its great contribution to our defence and security through its helicopter and aerospace manufacturing, including the Wildcat programme.

"These are, of course, essential to our local communities and I will always make sure these local industries are highlighted during such important discussions."

Following Dr Fox's visit to Yeovil, John Ponsonby, managing director of Leonardo Helicopters UK, said: "I'm delighted the Secretary of State has taken the time to visit us here in Yeovil to be updated on the export business opportunities that are critical for our future success.

"We are also grateful for the support being provided by everyone at the Department of International Trade as we aim to increase our export business to secure thousands of jobs in the South West and within the supply chain across the UK."

Ultra marathon raises nearly £3k for care at home service

ADELE Foxwell ran 36.2 miles in 6 hours 41 minutes and 15 seconds, raising almost £3,000 for the Seaton Friends Hospiscare@Home service in the process.

The 42-year-old mother of three decided to run an ultra-marathon in memory of Ken Potter, a neighbour of hers who recently died from cancer.

The run was not part of a race, instead Adele ran around local roads and woods along a route she had set herself.

She accomplished her feat last month and said: "What a great experience it was for me. The training was hard at times but definitely worth it as the actual run day was amazing."

"I had such fantastic support from my wonderful family and brilliant friends who joined me by running sections of it and riding the whole route with me. It's a day that we all totally enjoyed."

"The weather was perfect and everyone's spirits were so great it just carried me along."

Anders Larsson

Chief reporter | anders@viewnews.co.uk

"I want to thank all the amazing people who have donated such a fantastic amount and, especially, Steve's newspaper shop and RPM Motors - both of Seaton - for their exceptional amounts received."

"Thank you to Lycia Moore (the manager of Seaton Hospital League of Friends) for her great support as well."

"I'll let you know when I'm ready for another hare-brained idea."

The sum raised was £2888.22.

Seaton Hospital League of Friends is very grateful to Adele for her donation, which allows it to continue funding the Seaton Friends Hospiscare@Home service.

League trustee Shirley Robinson said: "The league is very grateful for the enthusiasm and generosity of those who fundraise on its behalf."

Seaton twinnings try out French cycleway

■ The cycling tourists about to set off

A GROUP of cyclists from Seaton & District Twinning Association has visited the town's partners in Normandy, France.

The September visit was designed to showcase the Voie Verte cycleway which links Quistreham and Thury, which is currently being extended to Clecy.

Seaton & District Twinning Association publicity officer Vivien Rodger said: "The cyclists were officially welcomed at a reception by members of the French committee and mayors of Thury and Clecy."

"Graham Jones made a short speech, passing on the best wishes and greetings of Seaton & District Twinning Association and Seaton Town Council."

"The journey included a visit to Caen and Pegasus Bridge en route, and Sword D-Day beach on the way back."

"A highlight was a barbecue in the village hall at Caumont-sur-Orne where the French provided the venue and the English supplied and cooked the food."

On the three days of cycling, the group was accompanied and guided by French member Yvon, who is a keen cyclist.

A cycle ride has become a regular feature of the last five or six exchanges, but this is the first time that French and English cyclists have got together outside official exchanges.

Members of the British group were Graham Jones, Roger and Becca Mawson, Colin Daley and David Gray, and recent members Bob Palaccio and Robert Watson.

RBL branch meeting

THE Beer branch of the Royal British Legion will be holding its first AGM at the Congregational Hall on November 20th at 5pm.

Organisers are requesting as many members attend as possible so they can be informed of the progress made so far.

The new Standard will be dedicated after the Morning Service on Sunday, November 5th.

The Remembrance Day Service will be held on Sunday, November 12th at 10.30 pm.

Local businesses go head-to-head on the golf course

AXMINSTER Tools & Machinery and Pecorama went head-to-head at Woodbury Golf Course in aid of charity.

Sixteen players battled it out in a four-ball better ball Stableford for a share of a £1,231 pot.

The pot of money was raised through sponsorship – all in aid of their chosen charities.

Axminster Tools & Machinery supported Seaton & District Hospital's League of Friends and Pecorama Hospiscare.

The day started well with both teams feeling confident of a win. But by hole seven for the leading group, the heavens opened and a distant rumble of thunder echoed through the valleys.

A welcome break at the halfway house allowed both teams to recoup and persevere through the elements to finish up and head back the clubhouse for a well-deserved meal and a count up of the scores.

The results were announced during dinner, with Pecorama beating Axminster Tools & Machinery by 140 to 139 points to win their charity the larger percentage of the charity pot.

Hospiscare received £736 and the League of Friends £495.

Pecorama's A.Gabb claimed nearest the pin on the fifth, winning a round for four people at Lyme Regis Golf Club, (which kindly donated the prize).

Pedallers take on 100km ride

A 14-STRONG Axe Valley Pedallers (AVP) team recently headed east for an away day at the Gridiron 100km event in the New Forest.

The event got its name from the numerous cattle grids in the New Forest, and is organised by CTC Wessex Cycling.

Starting and finishing in Lymington, the route features beautiful scenery and wildlife.

Bathed in unexpected October sunshine the AVP riders stayed in group formation throughout, setting a good pace which was challenging but manageable for all involved.

The AVP 'yellow train' was well fuelled along the way by the well run feed stations provided by the event organisers.

The ride took in the full gamut of New Forest wildlife with ponies, cows, sheep, pigs, donkeys and even a cat coming out to watch the spectacle roll by!

It was also a special day for one particular

Pedaller, Trevor Hamblen, who completed the 100km ride on his 75th birthday – a great way to mark the occasion.

AVP's chairman Jonathan Read-Bone said: "Once again, AVP has done a great job of showing off its colours and demonstrating our commitment to 'cycling for all' in the East Devon and West Dorset area.

"Well done to the team for a great effort and a very happy birthday to Trevor."

With a friendly and diverse membership of all ages and abilities, Axe Valley Pedallers attracts cyclists from Axminster, Seaton, Lyme Regis and their surrounding areas.

The club's regular road and off-road rides take in routes covering the East Devon, West Dorset and South Somerset countryside.

For more information, visit www.axevalley-pedallers.co.uk or find the club on Facebook, Twitter and Instagram.

New organ installed at St Mary's

A SPLENDID organ has been installed at St Mary's Roman Catholic church in Axminster.

A fitting recital followed its dedication by Father Anthony Cockram, parish priest for Axminster, Seaton and Lyme Regis, in memory of his esteemed predecessor the late father Michael Koppel.

It was he who realised the need of a stronger organ and made the trip to St Paul's Anglican church in Sherborne, where their instrument was no longer required. The organ was transported to Axminster where it was erected for use in an astonishingly quick five days, when Father Michael was still at work.

The accomplished Lyme Regis organist Richard Godfrey had also inspected the organ at Sherborne, being diocesan adviser for the C of E at Salisbury, and decided it was too good for the scrap yard.

He put together the celebration recital at St Mary's and insisted he should perform in tandem with his mezzo-soprano friend Elizabeth Denham.

He began with three pieces by the composer he, like most organ lovers, considers the greatest of all composers for the instrument – JS Bach.

But for all Godfrey's skill as both soloist and accompanist, many in the audience clearly felt that the show was 'stolen' by the clear and impressive voice of Ms Denham.

Trained in Paris and Rome, she went to have a well travelled career in opera and oratorio.

She began brilliantly with the familiar 'Where'er You Walk', actually a tenor aria in Handel's opera Semele.

This led into an aria from Mendelssohn's Elijah and then 20th century pieces by Burgon and Rutter.

Ms Denham also performed Ennio Morricone's 'Nella Fantasia' from The Mission, music from Gilbert & Sullivan and Flanders & Swann, and also also Oh! What A Lovely War.

STAG take on Shakespeare's 'Henry V'

SHUTE Theatre and Arts Guild (STAG) impressed audiences with their simple yet effective production of Shakespeare's 'Henry V' last week.

Performed over four nights at St Michael's Church in Shute and directed by Elisabeth Miller, the play told the story of King Henry V's claim to the throne of France, secured by the famous Battle of Agincourt in 1415.

Susan Gunn-Johnson took the lead role, supported by an able cast - many playing more than one role - who delivered the lengthy and complicated Shakespearean dialogue with barely a hiccup.

The story moved along at a swift pace thanks to narration from Victoria Pearce and the bloody tale was punctuated with humour - the French Princess Katherine (Deborah Meakin) trying to learn English was, in particular, warmly received by audiences.

Costumes, lighting and sound were kept simple and complimented the church setting, with the cast making the most of the small space available.

Cast: Chorus - Victoria Pearce; Archbishop of Canterbury, Duke of York and Charles VI - Iain Prudon; Bishop of Ely and The Dauphin - Simon Ford; King Henry - Susan Gunn-Johnson; Duke of Bedford - Nigel Freathy; Duke of Gloucester and Richard, Earl of Cambridge - Sue Whitell; Duke of Exeter - Barry Sindall; Earl of Westmoreland - Bob Whitell; Earl of Salisbury, Pistol and Duke of Burgundy - Tim Love; Henry Lord Scroop of Masham and Charles Delabreth - Richard Stenning; Sir Thomas Grey and Captain Fluellen - Mick Holdsworth; Sir

Town council to urge bus stops review

SEATON mayor Cllr Jack Rowland's motion to urge Devon County Council to urgently review the siting of Underfleet bus stops was carried unanimously by the town council.

There is widespread concern in the town that accidents could happen when cars try to overtake stationary buses at the stops.

A solution would be for bus lay-bys to be provided on both sides of the Underfleet.

Seaton Town Council will approach Devon County Council, requesting an urgent review.

"For each resident's birthday they receive a handmade birthday cake created by our chefs."

Competitors were tasked with producing a single-tier celebration cake for a special occasion covered in sugar paste, royal icing or chocolate decoration.

The winning cakes were served with afternoon tea at the NACC Training and Development Forum on October 5th at the East Midlands Conference Centre, Nottingham, where the cakes were judged and winners announced.

■ SEATON and District Lions Club's annual Welsh Choir concert took place on October 7th.

This year the club welcomed the Port Talbot Cymric Male Choir, a first class Welsh Choir, along with soloist and compere Di Botcher.

The Gateway was full with more than 200 people in the audience.

The Port Talbot Cymric Choir is one of the oldest choirs in Wales having been established in 1911 and now has more than 40 members.

Thirty-five choir members were on the stage, along with their musical director Matthew Lewis, accompanist Elisabeth Scourfield Jones and soloist Di Botcher.

Di Botcher is one of the stars of the National Theatre's current production of Stephen Sonheim's 'Follies' which runs in London until January and is being streamed live to cinemas on November 16th.

The Lions' compere Kevin Frost thanked the choir, musical director, accompanist and soloist before requesting they finish with 'God Save the Queen' followed by a rousing rendition of the Welsh National Anthem, 'Hen Wald Fy Nhadau'.

It was left to Lions' president Clive Millman to present a Lions' bannerette to the choir's chairman, Steve Williams, who in turn gave the Lions' president a commemorative plaque from the choir.

Pigeon racing at the museum?

SEATON Museum could feature a pigeon racing exhibition after receiving some old timing clocks.

David Snell, who was a member of the now defunct Seaton Flying Club, presented the clocks to museum curator Ted Gosling.

Mr Snell now belongs to a club in Honiton but thought of his local museum when he came across the old clocks.

He said: "It is all electronic and digital now, so these are a bit ancient."

"I went up to see Mr Gosling one day and asked if he wanted them."

The clocks were made redundant at some point in the 1980s, and Mr Gosling said: "We might make a little feature. Not too many people know about them (the defunct club)."

Seaton Flying Club is thought to have closed shortly after the millennium.

Its founding date is unclear but a Pulman's feature from January 1984 informs us that the club folded in 1970 due to a lack of interest – but was re-born in 1983.

That year the club raced a total of 2,075 birds over 21 events, and attracted members from as far afield as Chard.

The club also made headlines in the early 80s when it invested in a computer to become the first one in the region to work out its velocities "with the help of the Silicon chip," according to the Pulman's feature.

TWENTY runners representing Seaton Primary School took part in the 2017 Great West Run in Exeter.

Michelle Bee, an administrator at the school, completed the London Marathon in April, and presented an assembly to the children and staff on what it takes to run a marathon.

After the assembly, several staff members expressed an interest in taking up running so Michelle suggested that they sign up for the Great West Run half marathon to give them something to aim for.

The runners, including teachers, support staff, parents and relatives of staff, had 22 weeks to prepare for the challenge of running 13.1 miles around Exeter.

Some of the team had never run before and followed the NHS Couch to 5K programme before increasing their distances.

The team trained all around Seaton and even did a 10-mile run along Exeter Canal in final preparation for the race.

Training didn't stop over the summer, with group members taking their trainers on holiday and running in places like New York and Crete to keep up with their training.

On the day, all runners completed the event with some fantastic individual times especially from the novice runners who had never run under race conditions.

Michelle Bee said: "I never thought my assembly would inspire people to start running to get fit and it has been brilliant watching them develop and run 13.1 miles on a hilly course with only 22 weeks training."

"We are already planning our next run and hope more staff will join us."

New interpretation board at Honeyditches

AFTER 20 years of activity in and around the town, Seaton Development Trust performed its last service to the community on October 24th at the ancient monument site of Honeyditches, at the top of Roman Way.

Many local residents exercising their dogs in Honeyditches had been unaware of the site's importance in the story of Roman Seaton – a situation now resolved by the new interpretation board.

The board was erected jointly by the town council and the trust after an eight year tussle by three trust members over its design, production and authorisation.

It was unveiled jointly by the town mayor,

Cllr Jack Rowland and Barbara Dearden-Potter BEM, one of the trust's founding members.

The trust is to cease operation in the near future and, according to its articles, had to dispose of its assets to local charities.

The final balance of £1,300 was therefore divided equally between Devon Air Ambulance's night landing facility (represented by the town mayor) and Seaton Foodbank (represented by its chairman Stephen Page).

National Trust branch raises £490 at annual autumn fair

MEMBERS of the Axe Valley Centre of the National Trust at their annual autumn fair

THE Axe Valley Centre of the National Trust raise £490 at its annual autumn fair.

The fair was held in Colyford Memorial Hall on Saturday with money raised from the sale of plants, books, cake, bric-a-brac and two competitions.

There were also stalls from local craftspeople, and the National Trust supplied the centre with products to sell, making a further £65.

The centre will be holding a coffee morning on Tuesday, November 28th for potential new members and those interested in learning more about the group.

For further details about joining, contact membership secretary Bev Perkins on 01297 631801.

The group raises funds for National Trust local projects through fairs, talks and outings, including concerts in Exeter.

THE Axe Valley Friends of FORCE raise £936 at a coffee morning on Saturday. The event was held in Colyton Town Hall and stalls included cakes, home produce, books, Christmas cards and bric-a-brac. FORCE provides cancer treatment and support from the Royal Devon & Exeter Hospital. Volunteers would like to thank all those who supported Saturday's fundraising event.

Colyford residents beat the bounds

ALMOST 100 residents of Colyford took part in the traditional beating of the bounds last Saturday.

Young and old, couples and families, and even a few dogs set off for the annual walk around the boundary of the village. For an hour and a half they crossed muddy fields and ditches, climbed over makeshift bridges, ascended ladders, walked the planks, avoided trams and ambled through local woodlands lighted by dappled sunlight.

With the bounds clearly marked for another year everyone enjoyed tea, supplied and organised by local women in Colyford Memorial Hall.

As no Mayor of Colyford has been appointed this year, village clerk and former mayor Howard West gave the residents a brief history of the village and the surrounding area.

Village shop closes after 175 years of service

IT WAS a sad day in Kilmington when the village shop closed for good on October 18th, having served the community for about 175 years, writes BRIAN LAVENDER.

Kim Rhodes and her husband Terry owned the property and Kim ran the shop for the last five years.

However, Kim decided to retire from being postmistress and shop life; she knew that she could not continue single-handed for too many years.

Kim and Terry had hoped that the changes they had made would attract a buyer to prolong Hurfords as a commercial property, and the shop was marketed with commercial agents, but they could not find a buyer.

During its time, the shop has gone through two world wars and has been a centre point in village life and a wonderful source of information, help and advice.

The house and garden were occupied by a James Hippen in 1840 and in the 1841 census he is recorded as being a draper with his wife Elizabeth.

In 1851 he was registered as a draper and grocer but he evidently retired in about 1861 and moved to Axminster.

Robert Halsom Follett, with his wife Harriet and two children, appear to have taken over the business and he is recorded as being a general merchant whose family had grown to seven children by 1884 when he retired.

His assistant, Henry Tucker, who was born in Colyton, apparently took over the business because in the 1891 census; he is recorded as the occupier and grocer/draper.

In 1897, the premises were occupied by Herbert J Davis who appeared to have dropped the drapery side of the business.

From 1903-05, Herbert seemed to have tired of the business and he offered it to Harry Hurford, who had been born at The Old Inn in 1880 but was serving an apprenticeship in the Army and Navy Stores in London.

Harry changed the name of the shop to Hurford's Stores and set to work with vigour expanding the trade and modernising the premises.

Several wealthy farming families had enormous weekly orders which he would collect and deliver and he became very active in village organisations, particularly the cricket club, of which he served as secretary for many years.

He married Rose Spurway of Hendon in 1910, who sadly died at the age of 56 years in 1920. However, in 1921, he met and married Rhoda May Vessey who had nursed wounded soldiers in the First World War; she was a very saintly and a caring person.

They had seven children, the eldest being named after her mother May and the youngest Dudley.

Sadly their fourth child Rosemary contracted polio at the age of only nine months which added to the strain of running the business.

To help, Harry took May out of Kilmington School at the age of 14 years and she found herself not only helping to bring up her siblings but running the shop as well.

They stocked a full range of groceries, china, crockery, saucapans, etc, extending to poultry, corn and grain.

The Second World War brought rationing which complicated things as everything had to be weighed to the nearest ounce and careful account of the coupons kept.

Harry was quite a strong disciplinarian, not averse to using his belt to install a bit of discipline, and he kept the family rather regimented to help the business.

However, he was a generous man, not only looking after his family well by setting them up in their adult lives, but helping others in the village that had fallen on hard times.

In August 1940, Harry took a telephone call from John Ernest Lavender in Croydon, whom he had known when the Lavender family moved from Dalwood to Kilmington for a few years in the 1920s.

John explained that his house had been practically destroyed in a Luftwaffe raid and, although the family had survived, he wanted to move them to a safer place in the country.

Harry met them off the train at Axminster Station and soon helped them find accommodation in a farm cottage down the lane from Hills Farm, owned by George Trott. The significance of this story is that John's eldest son Ernest John (later known as Jack) started a romance with May, and Harry offered him a job in the shop on an six-month trial, which led to their marriage in 1949.

Harry decided to retire at that point and moved to Westgate, and May and Jack purchased the business and started their family.

When Dudley came out of the army and had completed a short apprenticeship at Harris's, the grocer in Axminster, he joined the business as a partner with Jack.

It was a happy arrangement because Jack was a good sportsman, playing centre forward for Axminster but more importantly becoming secretary of the cricket club, playing the dame in the pantomime and taking a leading role in St Giles' Church.

The business continued to flourish because of hard work and no holidays, the shop being the centre for news and gossip, advertising village events and the supplier of a very wide range of goods which now extended to included paraffin, metholated spirits and even coal at one stage.

They obtained an off-licence in the early 1970s, stocking a wide range of alcoholic drinks where you could buy a bottle of Johnnie Walker for £2.75 or a Nuits St George for £1.30.

Customer care was the ethos and the home delivery service sometimes continued on Christmas Day when customers had forgotten an essential item.

May and Jack had two children, John and David, and so the sound of young voices in the shop continued as they had ever since the business had been set up originally.

While John pursued a teaching career, David went away, trained and then managed Woolworth stores in different parts of the country before returning in 1988 to run the shop in partnership with Dudley, allowing Jack and May to retire next door in their new house.

The shop was then modernised to a self-help basis and the business flourished, with May usually there to help.

Eventually, Dudley retired

■ Dudley Hurford with May and Jack Lavender in the shop because of ill health and sadly Jack died in 1994 aged 67.

David was left with the shop and only his mother to help him.

He had also taken over the mantle from his father, becoming secretary and treasurer of the cricket club, dame at the annual pantomime and chairman of Kilmington Players.

With the advent of supermarkets in Axminster, first the Co-operative and then Tesco, coupled with the death of some very loyal heads of farming families, business became more difficult.

Millers Farm Shop and the Kilmington Garage shop added to the competition.

However, David took the opportunity to take over the Post Office when the one in Kilmington was closing in 2003, which he incorporated it into the shop, not only supplementing his income but saving a great convenience for village residents, particularly for the more elderly.

Coming up to retirement himself, the Post Office decided to close many of its rural post offices and the one in Hurford's Stores came under threat because it was within two miles of the one in Axminster.

David put the shop on the market as a business because he was determined that it should be retained for the convenience of village residents.

However, the Post Office then drastically reduced the payment for post office sales, making it a rather unattractive business financially.

But in 2012, Kim Rhodes with husband Terry put in an offer which was accepted and David and his mother May could retire, David converting one of the shop's warehouses into his bachelor pad.

POPPY APPEAL

LIVE ON: TO THE MEMORY OF THE FALLEN AND THE FUTURE OF THE LIVING

What is the Poppy Appeal?

The Poppy Appeal is the Royal British Legion's biggest fundraising campaign held every year in November, the period of Remembrance.

Each year, an army of volunteers distribute our iconic paper poppies throughout the nation, collecting donations in return to help support the vital work we do for the Armed Forces community.

Members of the public wear the paper poppy on their chest as a symbol of Remembrance: to remember the fallen Service men and women killed in conflict.

A number of Remembrance events, such as Remembrance Sunday, are held during the Poppy Appeal to commemorate the fallen.

How it all began:

THE first Poppy Appeal was held in 1921, the founding year of The Royal British Legion. Red silk poppies, inspired by the famous First World War poem In Flanders Fields, sold out instantly and raised more than £106,000. The funds helped WW1 veterans find employment and housing after the war.

The following year, the Poppy Factory was set up, employing disabled ex-Servicemen to create the poppies to sell during the appeal. Today, the factory still produces millions of poppies each year.

I Remember my best friend

Tom Boardman became a prisoner of war when British forces surrendered to Japan in Singapore in 1942.

October 23d 2017

TOM, now aged 99, volunteered for service in the Royal Army Ordnance Corps in 1939 and was detailed to go abroad in 1941.

"We sailed from Liverpool in early March 1941 and did a few days travelling across the North Atlantic towards America," says Tom.

"Then we struck due South and went across to Freetown, West Africa - the hottest place I'd ever been to. We didn't go ashore but after a few days there we went South to Cape Town where we had a weeks' leave. I was with Les Day, my best friend at the time, and we shared our days out together."

After Cape Town they headed for their final destination of Singapore, via Bombay and Colombo.

SURRENDER IN SINGAPORE

"Of course in 1941 there was no war out in Singapore and we were very pleased to arrive there at the beginning of May, eight weeks after leaving Liverpool," says Tom

"It seemed heaven on earth because there was no rationing and there was as much food as you wanted. However, little did we know what was on the horizon."

In December 1941 Japan joined the war, with British Commander Lieutenant-General Percival surrendering in February 1942.

"We were taken prisoner of war and were taken up to Changi district," explains Tom.

"The area was barb-wired off and we lived there from February to October. In October they started moving us from Singapore up into Thailand with a promise of better camps.

"The trip from Singapore up into Thailand was made in cattle trucks without any sanitation and one meal a day. It lasted four days and four nights and it was a horrendous trip.

BURMA RAILWAY

Tom was one of thousands of Allied prisoners who built a rail link between Bangkok and Rangoon.

"I spent 12 months building the railway in horrible conditions, with horrible food and the accommodation was horrible," he explains.

"We used to get rice and a spoonful of sugar for breakfast at the crack of dawn then they would bring out rice in containers slung onto bamboo poles at lunch time. Then we would get back to work until we'd finish the task of the day - anything from building an embankment, to building a cutting, to building a bridge or series of bridges.

"As you finished a section you moved onto another section and started working to meet up with a camp further down or higher up the railway.

"If anyone misbehaved they had what they called a metre stick. It was a metre-length of bamboo which varied from 1-2 inches in diameter and if you misbehaved you got beatings with it - that was a daily occurrence and there was no respite from it."

Whilst in captivity there were various illnesses and diseases that afflicted the thousands of prisoners, such as Cholera, Dysentery, Malaria, Beriberi, leg ulcers and amputations.

"It was a grim life and I consider myself very lucky to have got through it"

FREEDOM

The railway was completed in October 1943, after which Tom was put on building air strips.

The last airstrip that was built was at Phetchaburi, and was finished at the end of July 1945.

"The war finished as far as we were concerned about the 18 August because we were unaware that peace had been called and the Japanese had surrendered," says Tom.

"Within days Dakota planes were flying into this airstrip we had built and flying us in groups to Rangoon where we were rehabilitated.

"I arrived back in England on 8 October 1945 a free man and very grateful for it.

"I arrived home in Leigh in the early hours to be reunited with my wife who I had married in 1940.

"Luckily I survived the hazards," adds Tom, "It was a grim life and I consider myself very lucky to have got through it, and especially to have survived so long."

REMEMBERING LES

On Remembrance Sunday, Tom always thinks of his friend Les, who never came home.

"My life is full of remembrance of the war, and not a day passes without me thinking about it," he says.

"Les Day is the one person I really think about.

"I was with him all through the war days in Singapore and into captivity. I moved into Changi concentration camp with him but unfortunately he didn't survive.

Tom and wife, Irene Boardman

"I think it's not just a case of remembering in November. For me we should remember every day and every month, and that's what I try and do."

HOW TO BRING CALM TO ROOMS WITH THE NEWEST COLOUR TREND - HEART WOOD

Gabrielle Fagan, Press Association

Colour is a powerful mood enhancer. If you're looking for a feeling of calm, warmth and reassurance (that's all of us, right?) you could consider Heart Wood, the Dulux Colour of the Year for 2018.

The paint experts claim this smoky, gentle neutral with a tinge of purple heather can not only bring a sense of comfort, harmony and balance, but is so versatile it blends beautifully with other fashionable palettes, from inky blues and purples through to chocolate and pinks.

If it does, indeed, do what it says on the tin, it could just be an easy way to paint your way to a peaceful paradise....

Create light

"Heart Wood can be described as a warm neutral - a colour inspired by natural materials, which contain hints of pink, gold or yellow," explains Marianne Shillingford, creative director, Dulux.

"It can appear subtly different in changing light conditions, with notes of sophisticated 'millennial pink' through to a warm grey coming to the forefront. The shade has a subtle hint of heather, which creates a cosy, relaxed and welcoming look. It works perfectly with natural materials, woods and leather, and there's a supporting palette of seven colours, from stunning Blackberry Bush to delicate Blossom Tree."

Make it mellow and moody

"If you're looking to give a bit of a kick to this laid-back hue, pair with a flash of hot pink or a rich, deep navy," says Nadia McCowan Hill, resident style advisor, Wayfair. "This will take the colour from grown-up to glamorous, especially if you add accents and accessories in on-trend gold or copper, and use tactile fabrics like velvet and linen for a luxurious touch."

"This neutral, which sits somewhere between smoky taupe and soft mink, can conjure a serene space that's easy on the eye and instantly relaxing - perfect for a bedroom."

CHAIR CHOICE

What are the benefits of an Electric Rise and Recline chair?

AN ELECTRIC rise and recline chair will enable you to take complete control of your comfort and mobility, all at the touch of a button!

Electric motors operate the movements of the chair effortlessly allowing you to raise and support your legs, relax in a reclined position and help getting in and out of the chair. Your ultimate 'easy' chair!

The elevated legrest raises your legs and straightens your knees, aiding blood circulation and helping to reduce swelling.

Reclining the backrest and legrest provides a more even spread of body weight and support for your head helping alleviate neck pain following that afternoon snooze.

The rising function greatly reduces the effort needed to stand up. The chair gently raises and tilts forward to a near standing position easing the pressure placed on joints. A chair that makes it easier to stand up from can help improve mobility in the home.

A single motor action chair will recline and rise to help you stand up. The easy to use handset allows you to raise the legrest only before the back starts to recline. This action enables the chair to be positioned approximately 8"(20cm) from a wall.

A dual motor action chair will recline and rise to help you stand up. One motor operates the reclining and rising actions and the second motor operates the backrest. This action requires approximately 20"(50cm) of clearance behind the chair to fully recline.

Our range of electric rise and recline chairs are usually smaller in size than most three piece suite type chairs. So it should not be a problem to position this type of chair in the space of your existing chair. Measure your chair before you visit our showroom so you can compare.

Visit our showroom to see and try a comprehensive range of both single and dual motor action chairs in different sizes, designs and fabrics. It is important that the appropriate size of chair is selected for the person using the chair to ensure suitability and personal comfort. Our prices are considerably less than nationally advertised chair specialists - that's comforting!

Don't leaf it to the last minute – prepare your garden for winter

NEW homeowners in Somerset are being encouraged to give wildlife a helping hand through the harsh winter months by preparing their gardens for the cold weather.

Barratt Homes has teamed up with the RSPB to give its customers five top tips this season on how they can give nature a home ahead of the cold weather kicking in.

The tips and tricks on what to do as the seasons change are fun for all of the family and have been carefully selected by Barratt Homes to fit around a small budget and a time frame of less than two hours.

So if you want to do a little bit to help preserve Britain's wildlife or you want to transform your garden for all of nature to enjoy this season, Barratt Homes and the RSPB have got you covered.

A fantastic way for new homeowners to invite wildlife into their garden is by opening up a bird café to give feathered friends a place to feed during colder months. You can do this easily by investing in a bird feeder or a roofed bird table and getting a mixture of seeds, fruits, nuts and oats to put in them. Different types of birds prefer different types of food, so if you're looking to have variety in your garden, be sure to pick up an assortment of bird food. Other than topping up the bird feed when it's empty and making sure you clean your feeders often, you can sit back, relax and enjoy your very own wildlife show in the comfort of your garden.

Sales director Andrea Pilgrim said: "We've chosen the bird café as our absolute top tip because I think it's a great way for new homeowners to add a bit of wildlife and colour to their gardens without having to spend hours on it. This is the perfect activity to take part in if you're looking for something easy to do that you can enjoy all year round. Birds are fascinating creatures and we, as a country, should treasure them and be able to appreciate their mesmerising behaviours up close."

As the colder weather draws in, try creating a safe hideaway for insects and other mini beasts to use as shelter from the frost. Gather old materials and garden waste such as wood, soil and plant stems to create a small multi-storey bug hotel, then provide as many different holes, spaces and tunnels for wildlife to climb into.

Build a leaf storage cage with wooden stakes and chicken wire and fill it with leaves as you rake them up in autumn. The leaves will gradually turn into leaf-mould which is useful for

EDEN GARDEN FENCING AND LANDSCAPING

AT EDEN Garden Fencing and Landscaping based in Seaton, Devon we have been building and installing quality Fencing, Gates and Decking, along with Landscaping, for some 15 years. This makes finding a Fencing Contractor simple by providing for all clients' requirements, large and small locally. The timber products side of Landscapers, Eden Garden Developments, offers a friendly, professional, integrated service and the Seaton, Devon base covers a 30 mile radius.

A timely example, given the present gusty conditions, is Garden Fencing, where this can be replaced or repaired, depending upon condition and the budget available. This can be either Close Board, Panel (with or without Trellis), Post and Rail or Picket Fencing. Eden Garden Fencing and Landscaping also supply and fit Gates (see insets).

Whilst we take pride in installing robust and durable fencing products, "cost leadership" is still at the forefront of the business, whilst keeping quality and the principles of design foremost. Much of the work can be done during Autumn and Winter when the ground is less compacted and this time is also perfect for renovating the garden generally. So by Spring many garden improvements can be ready to be enjoyed. There is now a dedicated Timber Products website, www.edengardenfencing.co.uk, giving examples of the range and quality of workmanship. Additionally, information can be obtained by calling 01297 23596 (mobile 07977 415446) or visiting the general web pages at www.a1-environmental.com compost mixes. Be sure to leave a small gap under at least one side to allow hedgehogs, toads and small mammals to get in and use the leaf bin as a cosy place to hibernate.

If you have a nest box in your garden, now is the ideal time to spruce it up after birds have finished using it for young. Make sure the nest box is no longer active, then remove the lid and clean out the box with boiling water, allow to dry thoroughly and place a small handful of hay or wood shavings inside before returning it to its place.

Small garden birds such as wrens, blue tits and sparrows can then use the nest boxes throughout autumn and winter as a place to roost.

For new homeowners keen to expand their DIY skills, autumn and winter is the ideal time to build and put up a bat box to give the nocturnal creatures somewhere to roost, raise their pups and sleep throughout the day.

As bats use existing structures to roost, many of their usual roosting places are being damaged and destroyed so giving them a safe place to call home is a great way to boost your garden wildlife.

Make sure your bat box is made from untreated wood, and is sealed tight to avoid draughts. Leave a slit towards the back of the box, with a rough piece of wood leading up to it for them to clamber up. If DIY isn't your thing, the RSPB sell a selection of pre-made bat boxes.

Bats prefer to live higher up, so place your bat box under the eaves of your house or on a tree trunk.

Andrea continued: "Our partnership with the RSPB is important to help demonstrate how we can protect and enhance the biodiversity of the local area, benefitting our customers and the wildlife around our developments.

"We've handpicked these fantastic tips from the RSPB as the easiest and least time consuming ways that customers moving into their new homes can do their bit for nature in autumn and winter.

"When moving home everyone is busy and we understand that no one has a lot of time to spend in the garden but it is important to remember that the wildlife around us also need homes and these top tips are really fun and easy ways for everyone to get involved with that.

"Here at Barratt Homes, we want to work closely with our customers to ensure our British wildlife is preserved at our developments as this is extremely important to us."

Adrian Thomas, the RSPB's wildlife gardener, said: "So much wildlife is in crisis these days, so any little thing you can do means your new garden can be part of the solution rather than the problem. The brilliant thing is that it's likely to bring you lots of joy, too."

OTTERY ST MARY TAR BARRELS

Saturday 4th November 2017

Visit our website www.otterytarbarrels.co.uk

DON'T MISS OTTERY'S SPECTACULAR TAR BARREL TRADITION!

AS THE Tar barrel event in Ottery St Mary gets ever closer we would like to take this opportunity to inform returning and potential new visitors to the event road closure and safety advice.

Many of the roads into the town will be closed at 3.45pm this year. There is a through route via Butts Hill which this year has a dedicated taxi drop off and collection point. This route then continues on via Ridgeway, then into Kennaway road that both have parking restrictions on them. Then down on to Chineway road, Slade Road, Longdogs lane, and onto the Sidmouth road at the top of Tiphill.

Please do not try and attempt to park on these roads, they are to be kept clear to allow the free access of emergency vehicles to get to residents properties if required.

With this in mind this year we are opening two of the event car parks from 3pm. The main car park on Barrack/Exeter road and the Football club at the bottom of Butts road.

Please can you use these instead of parking around the estates of Ottery. We can't express enough how important it is to keep all the roads in and around the event clear.

Our residents need to be able to get back and leave their homes without the hassle of people parking anywhere they can get a space. So please help us and our residents by either using the event car parks, or by parking sensibly and not blocking or hindering the roads for the emergency services and residents.

By parking in the event car parks and paying the £10 parking fee you will help the much needed funds enormously. Once you are parked, the event is free to get into and watch.

Once you're in please watch the barrel movements at all times. They can and will change direction at any point. When the barrels approach please do not run away, take a step back and lean away. The barrel rollers are not aiming at you they are just trying to carry the barrel as far as they can.

PLEASE use the waste stations provided. They will be placed around the food vendor areas and other locations around the Town. Please help us reduce the waste left on the streets by using them.

We are trying to make this a glass free event, all alcohol and soft drinks sold at the event will be in plastic glasses. Please do not bring alcohol in bottles. Please support the many local organisations that run food stalls and public houses by buying food and drinks at the event.

For further safety advice and event details please see our website www.tarbarrels.co.uk. You can also follow us on twitter @otterytarbarrel or find us on Facebook, friends of carnival and barrel night.

■ SEATON PROBUS: Seaton Men's Probus Club recently held their AGM at Marshlands. Those elected for the 2017/2018 season posts were: Toni Williams – President, David Bridges – Secretary and David Dumbleton – Treasurer.

Probus clubs are a great way to meet others and make friends in the local area. Members are retired men (or those approaching retirement). The club is always looking for new members and welcome enquiries from anyone who would like to join us.

We are very socially active with evening meals at local restaurants, usually taking place monthly, and outings with wives and partners throughout the year.

Our next meeting will be held at Marshlands on November 8th when the speaker will be Tony Venning whose subject is 'The Life and Loves of Samuel Pepys'.

For more details please visit www.seatonprobus.co.uk or ring David Bridges on 01297-21560.

■ EXETER AND DISTRICT ENGLISH SPEAKING UNION: Col Nick Cooper gave a talk entitled 'From Decimation and Firing Squad to Rehabilitation' at the ESU supper event on October 18th.

After graduating in Medicine from Queen's University Belfast, Nick worked for the health services in Australia and the UK.

He then went on to serve for 25 years in the Royal Army Medical Corp (RAMC) in various roles and was then appointed Army Professor of Occupational Medicine in 1999.

He undertook operational tours of in the former Republic of Yugoslavia and Northern Ireland.

Col Cooper has studied and practised rehabilitative medicine and history from a military perspective.

Nick talked about how troops had been treated over the years from Roman times when at the Battle of Teutoburg the Romans were ambushed by Germanic tribes and three legions were barbarically slaughtered, to the execution of conscientious objectors in WWI.

Today we have a better understanding of physical and mental needs of the troops who require specialist skills and support.

Whenever possible it is best for the soldiers to be treated and returned to active duty rather than being honourably discharged.

Paul Waterworth the chairman of Devon and Exeter ESU told members about the recent training day for 60 local young people to "Discover their voices".

He said that the day had been very successful and worthwhile. Members also heard from two students that had been given sponsorship from the ESU to go to Thailand to teach English.

On November 15th there will be a lunch when the Countess of Devon is giving a talk entitled 'The UK as viewed by one pair of American eyes – and a glimpse over the shoulder of the Countess of Devon'.

Anyone interested in attending Exeter ESU events or becoming a member should contact the membership secretary Margaret Guyver on 01392 491898.

Despite not being a regular speaker, he coped splendidly with all our questions and gave us a brief history of the Mounted Police Force which preceded the Bow Street Runners.

He followed this with entertaining stories of his life with the Metropolitan and Avon & Somerset forces and anecdotes from his ceremonial, crowd control and civic duties.

Several members attended a Devon Federation autumn showcase at Westpoint. This was a new format and new venue and whilst we gleaned some interesting ideas from other WIs in the morning, the rest of the day was less successful.

Two of our members attended a speaker preview day to start getting ideas and bookings for our 2018 programme. If anyone locally is interested in talking to us or demonstrating a new skill or craft we would be delighted to hear from you.

We have held our usual coffee mornings, lunch and a lovely walk on Pilsdon Pen. Skittles are underway as are all our other clubs / activities. We are often busier in the winter than the summer!

If you would like to know more about your local WI come and join us as a guest. You can attend two meetings without being a paid up member, so now is a good time with a view to becoming a member from January 2018.

We are holding a social event on our November 1st evening which will give a chance for anyone interested to get to know us.

■ BEER: Axe River WI was formed four years ago this November, and during this time has grown from strength to strength.

We have had to change to a larger venue because of the growing number of members, and we now have a waiting list of ladies who wish to join us.

The committee decided that the October meeting would be an ideal time to hold a 'Getting to Know You Evening'.

With the absence of a speaker it was the ideal opportunity for all members, old and new, to share their experiences, hobbies, and even favourite 'dinner dates' with each other.

Alongside a music and picture quiz, various members 'took to the stage' to showcase their talents, the highlight of the event being a performance of a Greek Tragedy, including sheep, kings, princesses and a brick wall!

Forthcoming events were discussed, including the carol concert trip to Exeter, and the birthday meal in November.

Ann Walker and Sandy Whitehead provided tea and cakes, and Elena Evans supervised the craft and exhibition displays.

Talk on Devon place names and meanings at Honiton U3A

■ HONITON U3A: Robert Hesketh, a well known writer and photographer, was the guest speaker at the Honiton U3A October meeting.

He had come to explain more about the origins and the meanings of Devon place names.

Robert began by explaining the work of the English Place Name Society which is based at The School of English at Nottingham University, where it is a linguistic study based in history.

Place names are an integral part of our national heritage and they have taught scholars a great deal about the evolution of the English language and the languages that have gone into place names, which is a rich and interesting story rooted in our past.

As in other parts of the country, Devon names derive from many sources including Old English, Celtic and Norman/French languages; also, the topography of the landscape has had a big influence (e.g. hills, fields, meadows, cliffs, etc, and surnames too can be an integral part of their make-up).

Robert continued by giving many examples and detailed explanations of Devon locations, towns and villages and how their names were made up: e.g. draws – name; teign – river; ton – village, which can be translated as 'The village on the River Teign owned by the Drew family'.

To accompany these fascinating explanations was a continuing slide show of many of Robert's own beautiful photographs showing all parts of Devon and illustrating the many features to which he referred – it was an audio and visual delight!

Many thanks to arts cafe team for their hard work

■ GRATEFUL thanks to all at the Axminster Arts Cafe. I would like to commend all who have played a part in running Axminster Arts Cafe and for all the years of hard work and time given to building up such a pleasant oasis for all to enjoy in the heart of Axminster.

The arts cafe has been a tremendous success, providing paid jobs, musical entertainment in the glorious garden and space for local artists to display their wares.

It has been a real attraction for visitors and locals alike, providing delicious refreshments with the added opportunity to enjoy a coffee in a former prison cell!

Particular thanks should be given to the Fells Family and other volunteers who earlier this year gave of their time to upgrade the kitchen and decorate throughout.

There is a handsome turnover and established clientele at the cafe. I feel sure a new tenant will soon be found to continue this excellent establishment.

Congratulations to all who have given of their free time to run the cafe and the staff for their excellent service.

JOY RAYMOND,
Raymonds Hill

Thanks for your support

■ IT IS with sadness that the era of Axminster Arts Cafe must draw to a close in its current guise.

We feel a great personal sorrow on having to reach this decision, despite the fantastic staff making our cafe such a wonderful place to visit.

As explained in our 'official' press release in last week's issue of this paper, the decision was made for reasons beyond our control, despite our best efforts at trying to find others willing to take on the onerous voluntary management aspect.

We would like to reiterate our thanks to the staff, members, musicians and customers for their collective contribution in making the arts cafe the success that it is today.

Please continue to support and receive our usual great service, food and atmosphere. Thank you.

Support the Jurassic Coaster service!

■ I COULD not agree more with James Semple's comments about the implications of the reduced frequency of the X52 Jurassic Coaster bus service for the winter timetable and the need for central Government to give greater support to rural bus services ('Bus cuts will make travelling to RD&E difficult', Letters, October 10th).

All political parties should recognise the importance of maintaining rural bus services and not assume they can all fit the same 'London Model of self-efficiency' which is primarily based on the density of population.

However, residents living in communities along the X52's route must also shoulder a large part of the blame for the reduction in the frequency of this service because not enough of them are using it.

And it's not as if they have all defected to the 9A service, as even that service becomes very quiet once it is east of Sidmouth.

As passenger numbers drop, bus companies eventually reduce the frequency of the service because it is no longer viable – ask Stagecoach this in relation to the reduced frequency of their flagship 46 service from Exeter to Torquay and the 2 service from Exeter to Newton Abbot.

Sadly residents in East Devon and in West Dorset seem oblivious to the fact a double-decker bus (such as the ones we have on the X52 route) costs in the region of £250,000 to buy and does ten miles-per-gallon.

Bus companies invest in new vehicles and have depreciation and fixed costs to cover, but passengers don't recognise this.

In Seaton I have even heard some concessionary bus pass holders moaning about the fact that the previous 8.56am service from Seaton seafont to Exeter, which was part of the X52's summer timetable, cost them £2.50.

This fee covered the part of their journey before their pass became active at 9.30am and was an idea suggested by one of First Wessex's drivers to encourage more concessionary bus pass holders. What a brilliant incentive!

Instead some of these passengers would wait around until 10am and then caught an alternative service when their entire journey became free. Meanwhile, other people would rather create the daily congestion at Clyst St Mary or Sowton by travelling to work in a car which sits unused in a car park all day, even though their place of work is usually within a 15 minute walk of the X52's route.

Unfortunately this self-centred mindset has wider implications on those who can't drive, don't want to drive or are on low incomes and so have no other option other than to use public transport.

Unless we all become more proactive in using these bus services and leaving the excuses behind at home, we will all become the losers.

I remain hopeful that the summer 2018 timetable for the X52 service will be more frequent, as at the moment I am having to use an alternative service for my commute into Exeter which is costing me 33 percent a week more than the cost of a weekly ticket on the X52 and the journey takes longer.

Thank you, residents living along the X52's route!

D. MORGAN,
Seaton

Resident defends attitude to open top bus

■ AT LAST someone has spoken up about the other side to the long running story of the open top bus.

In the letter published last week from Elinor Jameson of Lyme Regis, she described exactly the objections that the residents of Haven Court had to the bus.

It should be remembered that Haven Court has been in situ for at least 15 years and in that time the coach park has existed alongside without any problems.

A large sign asks coach drivers to switch off their engines when parking, and over the years this has been respected until the arrival of the open top bus with its toxic fumes.

I resisted writing in our defence as I felt it would all die a death, but then the bus appeared with a crowd of jeering passengers who drew up outside the development and hurled abuse at the residents, some of whom are old and frail and were terrified by this action.

We were not the only ones who had objections but we have taken the brunt of the abuse and the name of Haven Court has been vilified.

I have lived here for 14 years and never at any time did I ever think residents of Seaton could be so vindictive and cruel.

Perhaps in future it would be better to find out the facts before leaping in to condemn.

PAT LOWTHER,
Haven Court,
Seaton

■ YOUR correspondents continue to bemoan the cuts in local healthcare provision, but do they actually make a difference? The Royal Society of Medicine provides hard evidence.

A press release dated February 17th 2017 headed 'New analysis links 30,000 excess deaths in 2015 to cuts in health and social care' details the careful exclusion of alternative explanations.

Your publication rightly concentrates on local news and reactions to it; however we cannot close our eyes and minds to wider reports which impact locally.

I invite your readers to consider what is likely to have happened to this figure of 30,000 in the last two years, and how far this will be reflected in our aging and increasingly isolated community.

Spiced Christmas tree brownies

By Mima Sinclair

Ingredients

- 150g cook's Belgian dark chocolate (76% cocoa solids), roughly chopped
- 150g unsalted butter
- 3 large eggs
- 125g caster sugar
- 1 tsp vanilla extract
- zest and juice of 1 clementine
- 3 tbsp port
- ¼ tsp ground cinnamon
- a good pinch of ground cloves
- several gratings of nutmeg
- 100g plain flour
- ¼ tsp baking powder

To decorate

- 75g royal icing sugar
- 1-2 tbsp gold and silver sprinkles
- 12 x Cadbury chocolate fingers

Directions

1. Preheat the oven to 180°C, fan 160°C, gas 4 and line the base and sides of a round 23cm-diameter springform tin.

2. Melt the chocolate and butter in a bowl over a saucepan of barely simmering water, making sure the bowl doesn't touch the water, or gently melt in the microwave (at a low setting); stir until smooth. Remove from the heat; cool for 20 minutes.

3. In a large bowl using a wooden spoon, beat the eggs, caster sugar and vanilla extract. Then beat in the clementine zest and juice, port and spices until just combined. In a separate bowl sift the flour, baking powder and ½ teaspoon salt. Pour the cooled chocolate mixture into the beaten eggs and mix until combined and smooth, then fold in the flour mix until just combined and there is no flour visible.

4. Pour the mixture into the lined tin. Transfer to the oven and bake for 20-30 minutes until set on top but still a little gooey inside. Leave to cool completely in the tin before unmoulding.

5. Cut the cooled brownie cake into 12 triangular tree-shaped wedges – you can slice off the rounded bottoms to give a straight edge, if you like.

6. Mix the icing sugar with 2 teaspoons of water, adding a drop or two more if needed to make a thick but runny icing. Drizzle or pipe over the brownie triangles in a zigzag pattern. Scatter with the star sprinkles and insert a chocolate finger to create a tree trunk. Leave the icing to set for at least 2 hours before serving.

Christmas Pudding Cheesecake

By Tom Kerridge

Ingredients

For the base

- 200g ginger nut biscuits, crushed
- 30g light muscovado sugar
- 1 tsp flaky sea salt
- 110g unsalted butter, melted

For the filling

- 240g Christmas pudding
- 30ml brandy
- 30ml stout
- 1 orange zested
- 2 x 280g tubs full-fat cream cheese
- 300ml pot double cream
- 200g light muscovado sugar
- 2 vanilla pods, split and seeds scraped

To decorate

- 2 clementines
- light muscovado sugar, for sprinkling

Directions

1. To make the base, mix the gingernuts and sugar in a large bowl and sprinkle in the flaky salt. Pour in the melted butter and mix with a wooden spoon to form a biscuit crumb-like mixture. Press into a 20cm round springform cake tin, spreading the mixture in an even layer to the corners. Chill in the fridge for 30 mins until set.

2. Put the Christmas pudding, brandy, stout and orange zest in a blender, and whizz to a purée.

3. Using an electric hand whisk, beat the cream cheese with the double cream, sugar and vanilla seeds, then fold through the purée. Spread the mixture over the biscuit base and leave to chill in the fridge overnight.

4. The next day, peel the clementines, slice into rounds and place on a baking tray. Sprinkle them with sugar, then blowtorch until caramelised and leave to cool. Release the cheesecake from the tin and arrange the clementines on top. Will keep for three days in the fridge.

Chocolate Profiterole Christmas puddings

By Sarah Randell

Ingredients

For the chocolate profiteroles

- 125g plain flour
- 25g cocoa
- 2 tsp caster sugar
- 100g butter, in small pieces
- 3 large eggs, lightly beaten

For the filling and topping

- 300ml whipping cream
- 1 tbsp icing sugar
- 1 tsp brandy (optional)
- 2 x 100g bars Belgian white chocolate, in pieces
- 50g ready-to-roll green icing
- 15g ready-to-roll red icing

Directions

1. Preheat the oven to 220°C, fan 200°C, gas 7. Sift the flour, cocoa and a pinch of salt onto a square of baking paper that you have folded in half and opened again.
2. Over a low heat and in a medium pan, gently heat 300ml water, the caster sugar and the butter. Once the butter has melted, turn the heat up and, as soon as the liquid comes to the boil, take the pan off the heat.
3. Pour the flour mix from the baking paper into the pan, then return the pan to the heat and cook for 1 minute, stirring all the time with a wooden spoon. You will need to beat the mix vigorously and keep going until it comes away from the sides of the pan – this will take a few minutes.
4. Take the pan off the heat and leave the mixture to cool for 5 minutes.

5. Next, little by little, beat in the eggs, making sure the egg is fully absorbed into the dough with each addition. You can do this with an electric mixer if you prefer. You will have a thick, glossy paste; leave it to cool slightly. Then, using a large piping bag with a 1.5-2cm plain nozzle, pipe 24 small balls onto a large, lined baking tray. If you don't have a piping bag, you can use a teaspoon – put 24 heaped teaspoonfuls of the mix on the lined tray and, with damp hands, roll each into a ball. Either way, smooth out the tops with a damp finger.

6. Bake the profiteroles for 25 minutes until puffed and risen, then remove from the oven. If you're going to fill them using a piping bag, quickly make a hole in the bottom of each one with a skewer then return them to the oven, on their sides, for 10 minutes. Alternatively, halve them and return them to the oven. After the 10 minutes, cool the profiteroles on a wire rack.

7. In a bowl, whip the cream with the icing sugar and brandy, if using. Then, using a piping bag, fill each profiterole. Or, fill the halved profiteroles with the whipped cream using a teaspoon.

8. Melt the white chocolate in a bowl over a pan of barely simmering water. Spoon a little of the chocolate over each profiterole and leave them to set in the fridge for 30 minutes.

9. To decorate, roll out the green icing and use a veined holly leaf cutter to stamp out 48 tiny holly leaves (or you can cut them by hand) and roll tiny berries from the red icing; use these to top each profiterole.

Lindy Parry Podiatrist/Chiropodist

I HOLD my private chiropody clinic at Townsend House Surgery in Seaton.

I offer a range of treatments from a simple nail cut to nail surgery, and each treatment plan is priced accordingly.

The nail cutting only service is a shorter appointment and is ideal for those that don't have any other foot care needs. Others like to alternate nail cuts with chiropody treatments as it best suits their requirements. I always aim to work with the patient to find the best treatment plan to suit each individual. Patients feet are then monitored during treatment so that changes can be made should the need arise.

Diabetic patients who attend for chiropody will also have a diabetic foot assessment carried out during their first treatment, and will then be monitored and re-assessed as necessary.

My chiropody clinics are available to anybody seeking help with their feet and Townsend House and I look forward to welcoming you.

What to expect from a massage depending on what country you're in

By Prudence Wade, Press Association

TAKE a look at how massages differ, from China to India.

As the old saying goes: No two massages were created equal. Okay, sure - that's not quite the adage, but it still holds true.

A massage is essentially the practice of putting pressure on the body to relax and reinvigorate your muscles, and techniques can vary hugely between countries.

Here are what massages entail in some of the countries they are most popular in, just so you're fully clued up next time you go abroad in need of a little relaxation.

China - There are so many different types of massage in China, and some are quite daunting. Fire or knife massage anyone?

One of the major practices is Tui Na which thankfully doesn't involve anything dangerous. It uses kneading, chopping and various other pressure movements to clear blockages in the body's channels - a core belief in Chinese medicine. It is often combined with other traditional practices, like cupping or acupuncture.

Japan - In Japan, a key traditional massage technique is Shiatsu. No, it's not a type of dog (that's a shih tzu) - it actually means "finger pressure" in Japanese.

It was developed from ancient Chinese medicine, and is all about working to balance the body's vital energy: Qi.

Shiatsu is by no means an intense sports massage, instead it employs comfortable pressure across the body to balance energy flow. It's big on the combination of the physical and mental to get the best results.

Thailand - Think twice before stripping off for a Thai massage, because they are traditionally done fully clothed. Also unlike your typical massage, no massage oils are used (which makes sense, so you don't get lotion all over your outfit).

Thai massages are also known as yoga massages, because the therapist will get you to adopt certain yoga-like positions throughout the treatment. This, combined with the kneading of deep tissue, should leave you fully stretched out by the end of the session.

India - Ayurvedic medicine is a type of holistic medicine that dates back thousands of years in India. It is centred on the belief that in order for you to be fully healthy, your body and mind need to be balanced - and this is taken into account in Ayurvedic massage.

This kind of massage features specially tailored blends of heated oils, and gently focuses on different pressure points throughout the body. Indian head massages are particularly popular using these methods.

“Helping people to lose weight is the best job in the world”, says local slimming consultant

PROFESSIONAL sleeper? Island caretaker? Wine taster? The idea of getting paid to do something we truly love is the holy grail for most of us. However, a local weight loss Consultant says she's cracked it after a recent survey of 26,000 people on LinkedIn* revealed that having a sense of purpose is the number one requirement for job satisfaction.

Sharon has run a Slimming World franchise since 2004 after losing an amazing 5 stone herself with the weight loss organisation and changing her life. Since then, she's made it her mission to help others transform their lives like she has and estimates that she's helped people from Honiton lose an incredible 1,000 stone between them.

“This really is the best job in the world as far as I'm concerned,” says Sharon.

“Having lost weight myself I know what an enormous difference it can make to your life and so being able to help people to change their life like I have really is the most rewarding thing.

“As a franchisee I love being my own boss and I'm lucky to have the flexibility to continue to enjoy a busy family and social life. I always believe that you get out what you put in and that's certainly the case at Slimming World, with the number of people you can help, in the excellent training and support you get and with the generous financial returns. I'd absolutely recommend the role to anyone looking for a rewarding job.”

The LinkedIn research showed that people who have a real sense of purpose at work are much more likely to be happy in their job. The research also found that people whose role is based in the local community, who have their own business and who work in healthcare are all more likely to feel like they have a purpose in their work and Sharon agrees, saying she's extra lucky as she has all three!

Slimming World Director of Field Operations, Lisa Salmon, said: “In the current economic climate people might be wary about starting up a business, which is why it's so important to choose an option that has a strong structure and excellent training, and can be set up in your own local area.

“All of our Consultants originally joined us as Slimming World members, giving them an understanding of what it's like to struggle with their weight and all have had success on the plan. Personal qualities are so important and we look for warmth, energy and enthusiasm, good listening skills and, most importantly, a caring non-judgemental nature and a genuine desire to help people lose weight – giving people the confidence to achieve their dreams is our ultimate mission and you don't get a better sense of purpose than that!

“With latest figures showing that around two-thirds of people struggle with their weight, there is an increasing need to provide people with effective and compassionate support to help them make long-term changes to their lifestyle. We provide franchisee-Consultants with in-depth training, an excellent support structure and all the benefits of a trusted household name brand that has been established for 48 years and has become the UK's favourite way to lose weight.”

A Slimming World franchise costs from £1,500. For this, Consultants receive Foundation training at the Slimming World Academy on the nutritional foundations of Food Optimising, Slimming World's healthy eating plan, the psychology of weight loss and facilitating healthy lifestyle changes through a range of behaviour change methods. They are also supported with all the equipment they need to run a successful group and a well-trained management and support team. Successful Slimming World Consultants with good group sizes can earn more than £25,000 a year for around 20 hours' work per week.

For more information on our current vacancies in the area, or to join Sharon's group, pop along to Honiton Family Church on Tuesdays at 3.30pm, 5.30pm or 7.30pm or Wednesdays at 9.30am or give Sharon a call on 07963337178.

West of England Laser Centre

IS YOUR SKIN GIVING YOUR AGE AWAY?

AS THE skin ages, it loses its elasticity and, as a result, can develop fine lines and creases; cheeks start to look 'hollow' and lips lose their 'fullness' and definition. These can be helped by injection treatments, dermal fillers create definition and add volume to the skin and have an instant effect. Other injection treatments offered by the West of England Laser Centre include muscle relaxants, which injected in tiny purified doses, relax the small facial muscles beneath the skin thereby softening and diminishing the appearance of lines and wrinkles.

The West of England Laser Centre also hold regular laser treatment sessions at Nuffield Health Taunton Hospital. Laser treatments offer an extremely precise form of treatment for thread veins, unwanted tattoos, hair removal, moles and warts and skin pigmentation. Our website at www.welc.co.uk provides details on all our treatments. For further information or to book a consultation please telephone 01823 331773 or e-mail us at lasercentre@lineone.net.

Trad Jazz with Pedigree

ILMINSTER Arts Centre is taking a trip down memory lane this Friday, November 10th with a return performance by the Pedigree Jazz Band, led by Chris Walker.

"Salute To Trad Jazz 2017" is the band's latest show, inspired by their shared fondness for the style of jazz popularized by Chris Barber, Acker Bilk, Kenny Ball and others in the late 1950s and early 60s. This is the period that became known, in Britain, as the "Trad Boom".

Many of the record releases that made it into the hit parade at that time are seldom to be heard in the jazz clubs of today, perhaps because the likes of Midnight in Moscow, Green Leaves of Summer, Livery Stable Blues, Chimes Blues, Peter & The Wolf and the William Tell Overture require a certain amount of careful rehearsal to do them justice. They are, however, included in "Salute to Trad Jazz 2017" and needless to say the band is continually adding new memories and old "hits" so the show is always evolving and fresh.

The show is presented by the band's leader, clarinettist Chris Walke, who has some 30 years regular broadcasting experience under his belt; as well as sensational music, the show includes informative commentary, anecdotes and, of course, humour.

Almost every appearance in the band's 2016 tour saw them immediately re-booked for return visits - Ilminster Arts Centre being no exception. If you missed them first time around, or want to see the 'Pedigree's' in action again, don't leave it too late to book your tickets - it's going to be a popular night!

The Pedigree Jazz Band play live at Ilminster Arts Centre at the Meeting House on Friday, November 10th at 8pm. Tickets are £14, and a pre-show supper is available at 7pm for £14 but must be pre-booked. For more details call 01460 54973

The David Hall

FOLK • ROOTS • ACOUSTIC • JAZZ • BLUES • DANCE • THEATRE • FILM

I AM pleased to say that October at The David Hall has seen some really great artists, some new and some well-established.

On Saturday, October 7th we welcomed the Bristol-based singer/songwriter Gaz Brookfield for the first time. This turned out to be a really special night as a large audience, many of whom were also first-time visitors, gave fantastic support, not only to Gaz but also to Street-based Nick Parker, who opened the evening. Fantastic material from two great songwriters, delivered in their own distinctive way, ensured this was a gig that will be talked about for a very long time. They will be back! Meanwhile, if you get the chance to see these two artists make sure that you do, as there is no doubt stardom is very close at hand for both.

On Saturday 14th I was at Costa Del Folk in Portugal, but a number of us had a glass of wine in memory of the wonderful Vin Garbutt who sadly died in June, and was due to perform for us at The Hall on this date. He will be long remembered.

On Saturday 21st the legendary Martin Carthy entertained us for the first time in seven years. For more than 40 years, Martin has been one of Folk music's most acclaimed innovators. The evening showed just why he is one of the true 'greats' in the history of Folk. Still a superb singer and guitarist and still pushing musical boundaries. A night loved by all.

On Saturday 28th, Nancy Kerr and The Sweet Visitor Band performed material from their excellent new album. Fronted by the dulcet voice of Nancy and featuring her on fiddle and guitar, the other members were also very much to the fore, and featured Tim Yates (double bass), Greg Russell (guitar) and Tom Wright (drums). Although Nancy has performed for us many times, this gig was a real 'coup' as it was the first time she had brought her full band to The David Hall. A night of really great music.

On Sunday 29th October, in the afternoon, we held a concert for those of a classical persuasion when we welcomed back the Divertimento String Quartet. An ensemble of two violins, viola and cello, the foursome played music from many different composers, including Beethoven and Ravel.

November gets off to a lively start on Friday 3rd when the critically-acclaimed Celtic Roots band, Jamie Smith's Mabon, will perform. This five-piece will take their audience on a magical whistle-stop tour, with jigs and reels jostling for space alongside other dance-related forms, including Breton, Mazurka and very much more, in an exuberant 'feel good' show. As BBC radio's Mike Harding said: "A top band led by one hell of an accordion player and arranger."

On Saturday 11th we are delighted to have the powerful singer/songwriter Martin Joseph back with us for his fourth visit. Without doubt, Martin is one of the most charismatic performers in Britain today. He is a jaw-dropping guitar player who has developed a unique percussive style and this, along with a powerful show-stopping voice and a mesmerising live performance, has seen Martin compared to Bruce Springsteen and Dave Matthews. Tickets are selling fast!

Friday 17th will see a welcome return by the wonderful trio, Gigspanner. Formed in 2013, when fiddle player Peter Knight left Steeleye span, Gigspanner have already built a large following with their unique, original and beautiful interpretation of Traditional music. Peter is joined by Roger Flack on guitar and Sasha Trochet on percussion, both powerful and intelligent musicians in their own right. A fantastic live band, I for one am really looking forward to this gig.

I often say that we have a programme that is musically diverse and this is certainly illustrated by the final gig in November when on Saturday 25th, the Bristol-based five-piece, The Moscow Drug Club, will return. We will again create a café-style atmosphere, which is perfect for this multi-talented band's take on a musical mix of 1930's Berlin Cabaret, Hot Club de France, Nuevo Tango and Gypsy Campfire. This band is totally intoxicating and provides an intimate musical experience. Not only great musicians but also tremendous entertainers. Guaranteed to put a smile on your face!

Next time I will provide you not only with details of our December events but also a flavour of what 2018 will bring. Your support is crucial to our ongoing success and I hope you will continue to enjoy the range of entertainment we provide at The David Hall.

All the best, Pete Wheeler, Petherton Arts Trust

■ An important event for your family diary is Sunday 26 November, when The David Hall Christmas Tea Party will take place from 2pm-4pm. Come along and celebrate the start of the Christmas Season with fun and festivities. Enjoy live music, Christmas stalls and children's entertainment. Plus, be part of the countdown for the South Petherton Christmas Lights Switch-on. Entry is free!

Also in November

On Saturday 4th November, there will be a Craft Fair - A Support The David Hall Event, from 9.30am - 12.30pm. Enjoy a relaxing morning wandering around the delightful stalls of our craft producers. Find a 'one of a kind' art work, great for that special Christmas present, or a treat for yourself. Free Entry.

NB: Unfortunately, The Midlife Crisis Disco, also scheduled for Saturday 4th, has had to be cancelled.

Petherton Picture Show will present two films. On Friday 10th, Churchill - a thriller following Winston Churchill in the 96 hours before D-Day. Starring Brian Cox, Miranda Richardson and John Slattery, and on Friday 24th, The Levelling: Trainee vet Clover Catto (Ellw Kendrick) returns home to Somerset after the devastating floods of 2014.

Acoustic Night is scheduled for Saturday 18th, 7.30pm - 11pm. All styles and forms of performance welcome - not just music. If you wish to perform please drop us an email at folk@chriswatts.org to secure a slot.

The David Hall's popular Coffee Morning will be on Wednesday 29th, 10am-12noon. Entry is free.

For further details about any of the above please check the website www.thedavidhall.org.uk or call 01460 240 340.

Remember, remember your cat during the fireworks season

CATS PROTECTION has issued advice to local owners to help keep pet cats safe during the fireworks season.

Whilst the celebrations can be great fun for people, cats can be left stressed out, confused or injured by fireworks.

Apart from the obvious physical damage suffered through accidental contact with fireworks, cats can be badly affected by fireworks noise and lights.

Possible behavioural problems as a result of fear and stress could include house soiling or excessive grooming, whilst there is also the danger of a pet cat running away and potentially not returning home.

A few simple precautions can help owners to keep their cat out of harm's way:

- Keep your cat in after dark and ensure he has access to a litter tray
- Try to reduce outside noise by keeping windows shut and curtains drawn. Playing soothing music or having the TV on may also help. Try not to reinforce fearful behaviour by soothing and reassuring a cat that is looking anxious.
- While cats like to be settled in a cosy, familiar territory such as a comfy bed or favourite chair, when feeling scared they need safe places to hide. Ensure they can exhibit this natural behaviour by providing access to a hiding place, such as under the bed, an igloo-style cat bed or something simple like a cardboard box.
- Make sure all doors and windows are securely closed to prevent your cat from escaping the home.
- A Pheromone plug-in diffuser such as Feliway® can be used to decrease anxiety and spraying and can have a beneficial effect in calming a cat during fireworks. However, you must start using it a couple of weeks before November 5th to maximise the benefit. It should be sited in the room in which your cat chooses to rest. Please speak to your vet for more information.

If you are having your own bonfire night celebration this year, then consider:

- Buying hand-held cascading fireworks rather than the noisier varieties
- Holding a 'silent' fireworks display - many companies now offer quiet or almost silent fireworks - giving you the same spectacle without the loud bangs.
- Keeping fireworks and bonfire displays as far away from homes as possible, to minimise any adverse effects on animals indoors, although bear in mind the effect these displays will have on wild animals.
- Check bonfires before lighting them to ensure that no small animals are sleeping inside.

Popular local duo receive special achievement award

AXMINSTER-BASED Steve Black and Alan West, were the recipients of the "Special Achievement Award for services to UK Country Music" at the recent British Country Music Awards ceremony in Wolverhampton on Sunday October 22nd.

Twelve years ago Alan & Steve began making music together. The bond between them has grown deeper as the years have rolled on. Gigging more and more together has enhanced each other's performance and writing and more importantly their genuine understanding of each other's strengths and weaknesses.

As well as gaining an reputation nationwide, they have developed a number of regular gigs in and around their home town in East Devon and have built a unique and very strong relationship with the ever increasing number of folk who come to watch.

In addition they promote and curate Midwinterfest, an annual weekend of country based music at The Victoria Hotel, Torquay. The brainchild of Alan and fully backed by Steve, Midwinterfest has been and will continue to be a working example of what they believe in. A platform for genuine British talent to be seen and heard by an audience that loves to listen to original country music. Midwinterfest Xtra is an organic addition and sees Steve collaborating with other writers from the UK. Last year's winner of the "Song of the Year" award at the BCMAs was written during one of these sessions. Proof, if it were needed, that Alan and Steve quietly yet strongly believe in the future of country music in the UK.

Lee Williams, CEO of the BCMA said "Country music is a genre that has in the past struggled to gain recognition outside of dedicated media. In recent years, this has changed. Alan & Steve have unquestionably had a part to play and the award is recognition of this."

So there you have it.....Alan West and Steve Black.....open, honest and devoted to their music. Their names have always been synonymous with quality and originality and their continued pursuit of excellence would appear to ensure nothing is about to change any time soon.

You can see them live locally at The Kings Arms, Seaton every Monday.....The Wheelwright Inn Colyford on the 1st and 3rd Thursday of each month.....The Axminster Inn, Axminster the last Thursday of each month.....Alternating Sundays at The Dolphin Hotel, Beer and The French Lieutenant's Bistro, Lyme Regis.

A View from the Beehive this November

the beehive
with Wendy Van Der Plank

AS THE nights are drawing in, some of us are feeling the blues at the Beehive.

Sue Waring, a woman of exceptional enthusiasm for anything associated with education and kindling a passion for science and the arts has recently passed away. This has been a terrific blow not only for her family and friends but also to the local community. Sue was the woman with the vision to head up a team and devise Honiton's first and second Festival of the Imagination at the Beehive, and now that team will strive to continue providing the public with this hands-on, family focussed festival, in her honour. Plans are afoot for the Festival of Imagination to continue on April 28th 2018.

Another great loss to Honiton and the Beehive is that of a wonderful Welsh man, Tony Simpson, undeniably a man of great conviction, a passionate campaigner for social justice and a stalwart Beehive fan! His boundless enthusiasm, knowledge and humour will be sorely missed by us and our thoughts go out to Edna and the family.

Now, looking forward to joyful things, after a run of great gigs and sell out shows we hope to have packed houses for our next two:

'Monmouth: The West Country Rebellion' is on Saturday, November 11th at 7.30pm. This is an epic historical tale told through the eyes of Alice who joins the rebellion disguised as a young man. The Monmouth Rebellion stands as a crucial and often over-looked first step towards modern democracy. It was the last direct rebellion against the Crown and ended with the very last pitched battle on English soil, the Battle of Sedgemoor. If you missed this show in Lyme then come and see it here in Honiton!

Next we have 'Flanders and Swann, recaptured' on Saturday, November 18th at 7.30pm a wonderful show packed with their classic comedy songs, favourites such as The Hippopotamus Song, The London Omnibus, The Gnu and many others. As a Beehive sponsored fund raiser for the Honiton Admiral Nurse Campaign we are inviting the audience to wear evening dress (optional, but fun!) and stroll up to the bar for a free glass of fizz prior to the show. There will be a raffle for the campaign and prizes contributed a week before the show would be very welcome for this worthy cause.

Comedian Tom Glover will be returning to the Beehive on Thursday, November 23rd at 8pm with another fab assortment of local talent for 'The Comedy Avengers' (16+). Looking forward to this, after a bonkers show last month! Tickets are only £6 in advance and £8 on the door.

We also have the free Folk Café with Sue King on Wednesday, November 8th, anyone is very welcome to come along and just listen or perform. Likewise our fortnightly Chess, Backgammon & Board Game Club in the café bar, the next ones being on Thursdays, November 16th and 29th, from 7-9pm.

For anyone who missed them at Sidmouth Folk Festival this summer, then get down to the Beehive for 'Mawkin' which is one of brit-folk's brightest new guns: a blistering 5-piece band fusing folk, blues and rock. See them, hear them, on Friday, November 24th at 8pm.

Once again this November we are delighted to be hosting the free INTO Film Festival for young people from 5-19 yrs old and have had a great deal of take up from primary pupils near and further afield in East Devon. Brilliant to see the Beehive cinema packed with children, some experiencing the delights of the big screen and surround sound for the first time.

Speaking of film, we have the absolutely awesome 'Blade Runner 2049' (15) coming on Friday November 11th, you can't beat this for astonishing visuals, intelligent plot and Dystopia with hope! Next up is 'The Mountain between us' (12A) on Friday, November 17th starring Idris Elba and Kate Winslet who are stranded on a mountain after a tragic plane crash. Ho hum, wonder what will happen there?!

On Saturday, November 25th we will be screening 'Lego Ninjago' (U) for all the family at 5pm which will be followed at 7.30pm by 'The Party' (15) described as 'a comedy of tragic proportions' and 'Deliciously wicked fun!' With a top notch cast of great British actors and director Sally Potter, catch this while you can.

Our Nostalgic film 'The Philadelphia Story' (u) will be at 2pm on Friday, November 30th. A Classic romantic comedy starring Katherine Hepburn as the socialite divorcee caught in a rather complicated love triangle. Also stars Cary Grant and James Stewart.

We also have some tremendous gigs coming up in December, tickets are selling swiftly for favourites Police Dog Hogan (December 8th), The Albion Christmas Band (December 10th) and of course, Mad Dog Mcree (December 21st). On Friday, December 1st you simply must see 'A Christmas Carol', performed by the amazing David Myrne, founder member of Kneehigh- prepare for much hilarity! See you there and hopefully before then! Wendy and the Beehive team.

Christadelphians talk on the Bible's future predictions

IT'S TRUE - the Bible does predict the future. It does so in the context of a great Divine plan that is gradually revealed through the book like a backbone running through the body of the scriptures. The plan will produce a transformed world living in peace and ruled over by God's son, Jesus Christ, who died on a cross outside the walls of Jerusalem 2000 years ago. But he was raised from the dead by his Father and has been alive ever since. He is alive today - waiting for the moment when God will send him back.

That future time which the Bible calls 'The Kingdom of God' is something that Bible believers look and pray for, seeing that life in our present world is challenged from every angle and that men have no answer to the things that threaten their continued existence on the planet. This knowledge is unique to the Bible and, of course, it raises plenty of questions. But it has the answers if only we are interested enough to look into it. There's a guarantee too. "Seek and you will find. Knock and it will be opened to you". (Luke 11:9)

SEATON: Knit and Natter with Age UK Devon,

Busy at the Beehive

AFTER two sell out shows last weekend, there's another busy one on the horizon with the annual Craft Fair on Saturday 4th from 10am-3pm. The Fair has free entry and is packed with lots of goodies ready for easy Christmas shopping there are also children's workshops and refreshments in the café bar.

Two great films are also on offer with Logan Lucky (12A) at 7.30pm on Friday 3rd and the exquisite, exemplary science documentary, The Farthest (PG) on Saturday, November 4th at 7.30pm. It recounts the rich and fascinating story of the Voyager mission, arguably Nasa's finest contribution to scientific understanding. Launched in 1977, Voyager I and II were sent billions of miles to the outer limits of our solar system to gather information about Jupiter, Saturn, Uranus and Neptune and then into deep space. For anyone who ever doubted that technology could contain philosophy, that physics could be metaphorical poetry and that science is the closest force to magic that we will ever know: watch The Farthest. 'One of the deeply admirable things about this film, in addition to the beauty of its imagery, its sprightly rhythm and its witty soundtrack, is that the science isn't too dumbed down. Grab the chance to see this in a cinema while you can'. The Guardian.

Logan Lucky is a high-spirited, low-down blast. It's a let's-rob-the-racetrack heist comedy set in that all-American place that even rednecks would have no problem calling redneck country: the land of NASCAR and child beauty pageants, spangly long fingernails and roadside biker-bar brawls, and — these days being what they are — chronic unemployment and spiritual stagnation. Channing Tatum and Adam Driver are joined by an almost unrecognisable Daniel Craig in this warm and witty crime caper. The unlucky Logans stage a heist in a bid to rewrite their family history, enlisting the help of local prison inmate and explosives expert Joe Bang (Daniel Craig having a terrific time unfettered by his James Bond bonds!).

with Abigail Willis

Jazz fans are in for a treat this month at the Arts Centre with two fabulous concerts of old style jazz. On Friday 10th the Pedigree Jazz Band return with their latest 'Salute to Trad Jazz' show. Led by clarinettist Chris Walker, this highly experienced band are inspired by their shared fondness for the style of jazz popularised in the 50s and 60s by the likes of Chris Barber, Acker Bilk and Kenny Ball. The show combines great tunes with informative commentary, anecdote and humour. Tickets £14.

Ever popular jazz pianist Mike Denham returns on Friday 24th November to take us on a magical history tour through the world of jazz. 'From Rags to Riches' is an entertaining solo show covering 100 years of American popular music from the 'rags' of Scott Joplin to the 'riches' of the Gershwin brothers and Irving Berlin, and beyond to the rebellious birth of rock'n'roll. Mike's show at the Arts Centre are nearly always sold out, so advance booking is strongly recommended.

The gallery is keeping things local with an exhibition by the Neroche Artists'. This group of accomplished Somerset artists always put on a good show, with each artist excelling in their own field. Participating artists include Andrew Bell, Shena Bulcock, Jan Brame, Peter Cottell, Michael Gilling, Stephanie Hothouse, Robert Humphries, Robert Parker, Pat Preater, Michael Tarr and Terry Ward.

Enjoy atmospheric seascapes, captivating landscapes, flower and animal studies and work inspired by the man-made world of architecture and advertising, in a variety of mediums, paintings, sculpture, prints and pastels. On until 25 November.

A wonderful pre-Christmas shopping opportunity awaits on Friday 24th with our Textile Makers' Fair. Curated by A Talent for Textiles this event is a showcase of beautiful textile-based work by West Country makers who use vintage textiles in their work to create unique and characterful pieces that sit happily in the contemporary home setting. Doors open at 9.30am.

For those who want to enjoy creating textiles for themselves, why not book one of our hands-on workshops? This month alone you can try crocheting Christmas Trees and Decorations on Thursday 9th, Slow Stitch on Saturday 11th, Knit Stitch and Crochet on Thursday 16th, and Felting on Friday 17th. For full details of all our workshops, please see our website www.themeetinghouse.org.uk.

Tolkien's play to be performed in Lyme Regis

IN 1939, TOLKIEN was despairing of ever bringing his great work The Lord of the Rings to a conclusion. One morning he woke up with the story of Leaf by Niggle complete in his mind and wrote it down. This poignant tale – about an artist on a curious journey – is often seen as an allegory of the writer's own creative process and life.

Niggle is a painter. Not a very successful one, partly because he has so many other things to do. For some time he has been obsessed with one particular canvas – a curious picture of a tree with a vast landscape stretching out behind it. The painting keeps getting bigger and bigger, but he Marine Theatre is pleased to present the classic Tolkien classic play performed by Puppet State Theatre. Puppet State use intimate storytelling, object animation, music and sound to bring the story to life. The production appeals to adults and children from about the age of ten.

Niggle has a journey to make.

Surrounded by ladders, bicycles and easels Richard Medrington (the lead from the acclaimed The Man Who Planted Trees) recounts Tolkien's miniature masterpiece, with a soundtrack composed by Karine Polwart and Michael John McCarthy.

Richard Medrington performs Leaf by Niggle at the Marine Theatre on Friday, November 10th at 7.30pm. Tickets are £12 (concessions £10) available online at www.marinetheatre.com or by calling 01297 442138.

Controversial Comic Andrew Lawrence at the Marine Theatre

FOLLOWING his comments on recent events you might have read about him recently in the news as comic Andrew Lawrence has a knack for attracting attention.

He's the star of BBC1's Live at The Apollo, Michael McIntyre's Roadshow and Sky Arts' The Outcast Comic, as well as the hugely successful self-penned BBC Radio 4 series, There Is No Escape. Without question the most subversive voice in UK comedy right now presents an all new, riotously funny set of jokes, poking fun at Liberal pretensions, PC hysteria and his own awful parenting skills. The Happy Accident Tour is a gag packed stand-up show about coming to terms with fatherhood.

Andrew Lawrence comes to the Marine Theatre, Lyme Regis this Friday, November 3rd, at 8pm.

Tickets are £16 and £14 concessions, available by calling 01297 442138 or online at www.marinetheatre.com

Symonds & Sampson

ESTABLISHED 1858

LATEST AUCTION ON 12TH OCTOBER

SYMONDS & Sampson's latest auction on 12th October at Axminster included lots in Devon and Dorset with all of the properties selling very well. Partner Ross Willmington said "With numerous unhelpful headlines in the press about property prices and continuing uncertainty over Brexit our property auctions have once again proved the doubters wrong. The Guildhall was packed to the rafters with buyers from the local area and all over the UK".

Agricultural land remained in strong demand from locals and investors, with five lots up for sale. 18 acres of steep permanent pasture with areas of scrub at Marshwood averaged £6,804 per acre. The top price was for a 3.21 acre paddock at All Saints that sold for £73,000 (nearly £23,000 per acre) and close behind was a 2.75 acre paddock at Askerswell selling at £49,000 (£17,818 per acre). There was also 6.28 acres of pasture and woodland at Eype sold to The National Trust at £40,000.

Rickey Stoodley, manager of our Residential department handled the sale of three houses for renovation in the auction, all of which sold for significantly more than their guide prices. A thatched terrace cottage at Coles Lane, Axminster sold for £170,000. A bungalow in Dragons Mead, Axminster for £250,000 and a timber bungalow at Hayne Lane, Wilmington for £252,000.

Symonds & Sampson's next auction in Axminster is on 30th November with entries including a 130 acre farm. Entries are now being taken for our spring 2018 auctions, with the first sale in March shaping up to be another good catalogue. Please call Ross Willmington or one of his team on 01297 33122 for an appraisal of your parcel of land or property.

VENI VIDI VICI...

A unique opportunity to own a Roman Hill Fort with panoramic views over the beautiful Dorset countryside and coastline. Built by the Second Legion during the Roman occupation following the invasion in AD43, Waddon Hill Fort housed a mixed garrison of legionaries and cavalry whilst they tried to subdue the local Durotriges tribe. Abandoned after the revolt led by Queen Boudica of the Iceni, this rare monument is part of Stoke Knapp Farm, Stoke Abbot, which comes to the open market for the first time in over a hundred years. A handsome early 18th century farmhouse listed Grade II, with golden ham stone elevations under a slate roof. The house has a wealth of original features and requires complete renovation. To the rear of the house is the farmyard with a courtyard of mainly traditional buildings and the dilapidated modern farm buildings lie beyond. The land comprises productive pasture and arable land, including Waddon Hill Fort, which has been used for events such as weddings in the past. Lot A - Farmhouse, farm buildings and 85.29 acres (34.52 ha) of pasture land with a guide price of £800,000. A further 45.10 acres (18.25ha) of land is available in five lots.

For Sale by Public Auction at The Guildhall, Axminster on Thursday 30th November 2017, 2:00pm.

For further information on this property, or if you are considering a sale of your property, contact Ross Willmington on 01297 33122.

MG breaks new ground with 7 year warranty

MG MOTOR UK has today announced the introduction of a full 7 year warranty on its brand-new Compact-SUV, the MG ZS. Completely transferable to any new owner before the 7 year/80,000-mile limit is reached; the highly competitive package also guarantees any genuine replacement MG parts for the remainder of the agreement.

The 7 year/80,000-mile warranty is an extension of the manufacturer warranty and gives customers complete peace of mind. Like the MG3 and MG GS, the MG ZS also comes with the option of a six-year anti-perforation warranty covering against corrosion.

Drivers can be confident that the increased warranty does not diminish the level of cover provided and is not an insurance-based product. MG Motor UK believes so strongly in the quality of the new MG ZS that it is backing the fantastic warranty itself. The brand cares about giving customers top-quality cars and top-quality aftercare; the 7 year/80,000-mile warranty will provide customers with the comfort that the manufacturer will look after them and their car should anything go wrong.

Matthew Cheyne, Head of Sales and Marketing at MG Motor UK, said: "This is MG putting its money where its mouth is. With the introduction of a 7 year warranty, we are making a clear statement of intent about the quality of our design, engineering and manufacturing. Our goal is to deliver hassle-free motoring in stylish cars that stand up to the toughest of challenges. Benefiting from global design expertise, but reengineered specifically for UK roads, we are confident that the MG ZS will prove exceptionally popular. The 7 year warranty makes it even more compelling."

The MG 7 year warranty will be available on all three variants of the new MG ZS – Explore, Excite, Exclusive – as standard.

Available in dealerships from 1st November 2017, the MG ZS will also come with 0% finance and a low monthly payment of just £199 for the top of the range Exclusive manual model. The MG ZS range starts from just £12,495, with both manual and automatic gearbox petrol options.

Suzuki V-Strom range gets GT treatment

SUZUKI has given its V-Strom range the GT treatment, with new versions of the V-Strom 650 and V-Strom 1000 now available from authorised dealerships.

Available for £1,000 more than their comparative standard models, the GT variants of Suzuki's popular adventure machines come with three piece luggage as standard; the top box and panniers boasting a combined capacity of 64L. For those looking at the more off-road orientated models in the V-Strom range, the GT kit is also available on the XT versions of the V-Strom 650 and V-Strom 1000.

For 2017 the new V-Strom 650 gets a two-stage traction control system, which can also be switched off, low RPM assist, and Suzuki's new easy-start system. An updated version of Suzuki's proven 645cc V-twin produces more power and torque, helped by a new exhaust system.

Performance is also further improved thanks to a 1kg weight reduction, while practicality is also increased with a 12V DC outlet as standard; the whole package wrapped in new bodywork inspired by the firm's iconic DR-Z and DR-Big machines. There's also new luggage and new heated grips available as part of Suzuki's genuine accessory range.

The newest V-Strom 1000 is also updated for 2017, and became the first Japanese adventure machine to feature cornering ABS. The larger sibling of the V-Strom family also boasts a three-mode traction control system, as well as the same easy-start system and low RPM assist as the 650. A redesigned screen improves weather protection, as part of the bike's newly-fitted bodywork.

The V-Strom 650 GT will retail for £8,399, with V-Strom 650X GT available for £8,899. The V-Strom 1000 GT will come with an RRP of £10,499, with the range-topping V-Strom 1000X GT available for £10,999. All are now available in authorised Suzuki dealerships.

New Citroën C4 Cactus: The ultra-comfortable hatchback with a unique personality

CITROËN has unveiled New C4 Cactus, its new compact hatchback. The car's styling is as bold and modern as ever – and it now gains enhanced status. Influenced by the Citroën Advanced Comfort® programme, New C4 Cactus is the first model in Europe to feature the brand's new suspension system with Progressive Hydraulic Cushions™ (PHC), creating a 'magic carpet ride' effect. It is also the first vehicle in the world to boast Advanced Comfort seats. With its unique personality, New C4 Cactus is set to shake up the market in the first quarter of 2018.

Following the successful launch of New C3 in 2016 – and the SUV offensive in 2017 with New C3 Aircross and New C5 Aircross – Citroën is continuing the roll-out of its full product offensive and surprising the world once again with its new compact hatchback, New C4 Cactus. This new model brings a breath of fresh air to the hatchback segment by blending the singular personality of the C4 Cactus with the class-leading comfort of the C4 hatchback. The model's status has also received a boost through the addition of segment essentials, such as 12 driver assistance systems, three connectivity technologies and a revised engine line-up, with power units now developing up to 130hp.

With its modern and distinctive design, New C4 Cactus brings its occupants an all-new experience of well-being.

Citroën took inspiration from its technological heritage in terms of hydraulic suspension systems, reinterpreted this technical expertise and has now created a solution that is accessible to the greatest number of customers. New C4 Cactus is the first model in Europe to be equipped with the Citroën brand's new suspension system with Progressive Hydraulic Cushions™ (PHC), and the first in the world to feature Advanced Comfort seats.

Pickup meets lifestyle: The new Mercedes-Benz X-Class

THE NEW Mercedes-Benz X-Class is available to purchase from £27,310 excl. VAT, with first deliveries for vehicles ordered now expected in January 2018.

All UK vehicles are doublecab, with 4MATIC selectable all-wheel drive and low-range, drive selection mode, with double wishbone front suspension, and multi-link rear suspension, all as standard.

Customers can choose from three distinct model lines to suit different lifestyles and work environments: the PURE basic variant for classic robust use, PROGRESSIVE for higher requirements in terms of quality feel and comfort, and POWER as the high-end variant for urban lifestyles.

Engines and transmissions

The X-Class is initially offered with a choice of two engines: the X 220 d 4MATIC 4-cylinder 2.3l diesel with common-rail and turbocharger, offering 163hp (120kW), or the X 250 d 4MATIC 4-cylinder 2.3l diesel with common-rail and twin-stage turbocharger, offering 190hp (140kW).

The X 220 d 4MATIC comes with a six-speed manual transmission in a choice of PURE or PROGRESSIVE model lines.

The X 250 d 4MATIC is available in all three model lines: PURE, PROGRESSIVE and POWER, with a seven-speed automatic gearbox available.

PURE

The entry-level X-Class PURE model is only available with the six-speed manual transmission 220 d 4MATIC engine, and offers a rear bumper with integrated step, halogen headlights and a radiator grille with matt black finish.

Inside, the PURE model offers a manually adjustable driver and passenger seat in Tunja black fabric upholstery, with a large storage compartment in the centre console, incorporating an armrest and cupholder. The model also offers semi-automatic air-conditioning with high gloss black details in the air vents.

X-Class PURE models are offered with 17-inch steel wheels as standard.

PROGRESSIVE

The mid-level X-Class, which is £1,200 excl. VAT above the PURE model, is offered with a choice of either the 220 d 4MATIC engine, or the uprated 250 d 4MATIC engine.

The PROGRESSIVE model line also offers painted bumpers with a simulated under guard in matt black; aluminium door sills featuring 'Mercedes-Benz' lettering; chrome door handles; load securing rail system; heated exterior mirrors; and a radiator grille with iridium silver matt finish.

Inside, the PROGRESSIVE model comes with black fabric upholstery and an aluminium trim, with automatic dimming interior mirror with integrated compass function, illuminated sun visors, lighting for the front footwell and exit lamps, and chrome air vents.

X-Class PROGRESSIVE models are offered with 17-inch six-twin-spoke light-alloy wheels in vanadium silver as standard.

POWER

The high-level X-Class, which is £3,500 excl. VAT above the PROGRESSIVE model, is offered in conjunction with the 250 d 4MATIC engine only, and features painted bumpers with simulated under guard in chrome; a rear bumper in chrome with integrated step; fog lights with chrome surround; shoulder line trim strips in chrome; LED high-performance headlights with cleaning system; LED tail lights; electrically folding exterior mirrors; and KEYLESS GO, all as standard.

Inside, the POWER line comes with eight-way electrically adjustable driver and front passenger seats as standard, with ARTICO leather and DINAMICA microfibre upholstery, with an ARTICO leather dashboard with topstitching, complimented by a black, high-gloss interior trim.

X-Class POWER models are offered with 18-inch six-twin-spoke light-alloy wheels in himalaya grey, as standard.

Option packages

With seven option packages, the X-Class can be customised to suit the individual requirements of the owner.

Style Package, specifically developed for the POWER model line, includes privacy glass; electric rear windows; running boards; roof rails; and 19-inch six twin-spoke light alloy wheels (£1,345 excl. VAT).

Style Package for the PROGRESSIVE model adds LED high-performance headlights with LED daytime running lights; LED tail lights; privacy glass; running boards; roof rails; and 18-inch six twin-spoke light alloy wheels (£2,190 excl. VAT).

As an interior pack for the PROGRESSIVE model, Comfort Package features eight-way electrically adjustable driver and front passenger seat with lumbar adjustment; THERMOTRONIC automatic climate control; ARTICO leather with DINAMICA microfibre upholstery; and a storage net for the passenger footwell (£1,235 excl. VAT).

Parking Package, which is available on the PROGRESSIVE and POWER models, includes PARKTRONIC parking sensors and 360° camera, which features networked cameras in the front grille, wing mirrors and tailgate to capture a complete bird's-eye view of the vehicle's immediate surroundings to assist in avoiding obstacles and pedestrians when parking (£570 excl. VAT).

Plus Package is offered on the PURE model, and features PARKTRONIC parking sensors and load rail securing system (£700 excl. VAT).

Winter Package, available across all three model lines, adds heated seats and heated washer fluid jets (£340 excl. VAT), while Smoker Package adds an ashtray for the cupholder and lighter in the 12V socket (£30 excl. VAT).

Optional extras

Rise ressesies shock league leaders • Hurford announces second assistant manager

SW PENINSULA LEAGUE D1
ALPHINGTON 2
AXMINSTER TOWN 1

THE ALPHAS, fielding a young side, managed a much needed win with Aidan Whitfield, recently promoted to the firsts having come through the youth ranks, impressing at right back. They shaved an even first half thanks to a seventh minute 20-yard strike by Ryan Moody which found the bottom corner of the net.

At half-time Axminster's manager Jonny Hurford emerged as substitue and was instrumental in their 65th minute equaliser when his shot from the edge of the box was parried by keeper Jack McAndrews only for Tony Pinder to knock in the rebound. Seven minutes later Moody was brought down in the box allowing Harry Taylor to send keeper Scott Wells-Burr the wrong way from the spot for the winner.

Axminster: Scott Wells-Burr, Shaun Wells-Burr, Mark Smale, Dan Beer, Craig Every, Charley Skilton, Paul Nicholls, Darren Hutchings, Nathan Warren, Tony Pinder, Sam Dibling. Subs: Joe Urquhart, Jonny Hurford, Gary Spiller.

Hurford announces Manley as his second assistant

Axminster player-manager Jon Hurford has appointed Jason Manley to work alongside Bryan Perryman as his assistants, Hurford told View Sport: "Having Jason and Bryan in the dug out will enable me to keep playing more, he has a lot of knowledge of the local football scene."

Manley, a cultured centre back for, amongst others; Chard Town, Crewkerne and Gillingham, was most recently player-manager at Somerset Premier Division outfit Ilminster Town before resigning early into the current campaign having led them to promotion the previous season.

"Axminster have a very professional set-up with some good players. Hurf needs to play more and working with Bryan is already going well - I'm really looking forward to it," said Manley.

DEVON & EXETER LEAGUE
PREMIER DIVISION*UPOTTERY 1 BEER ALBION 1

BEER ALBION had to work hard to secure a point at Upottery on Saturday drawing 0-0 at Glebe Park, writes Richard Honnor.

It was not one of the Fishermen's most fluent performances as the home side dominated possession playing some lovely football. Yet Beer did create as many chances and went close to stealing the three points in the final minutes.

Upottery should have been two up at half time but spurned good chances. First, on 14 minutes their striker mis-cued wide from 6 yards after Beer failed to clear a corner. Then keeper Jones made a good save from close range on 28 minutes. The Fishermen were unable to get the ball down and play and their frustration showed just on half time when skipper Sam Phillips was sin-binned for dissent.

Despite being down to 10 men, The Fishermen started the second period brightly and took the lead on 50 minutes when Jack Harwood controlled a long clearance from keeper Jones and laid the ball to Simon Smith who hit a spectacular strike from 25 yards into the top corner.

At last the Fishermen began to play with some confidence but Upottery responded well and after a succession of corners, the home side equalised on 61 minutes with a clean strike from 12 yards out from their left back.

As the home side pressed hard for a late winner, the Fishermen started to find space to create some chances themselves. On 76 minutes hard-working Jack Harwood went close and then the unmarked Chris Long failed to control a far post cross.

DIVISION FOUR
BEER ALBION RES 7
STARCROSS 0

BEER Albion Reserves were in high-scoring form at the Furzebrake beating Starcross Generals 7-0 in a Devon and Exeter League Division 4 game. Young striker Taylor Rooke was sponsor Dolphin Hotel's man-of-the-match with a fine hat-trick. Nathan Newbury, Tommy Neale, Jay Catley and an own goal were the other scorers.

The game was evenly contested early on but after Newbury's 15-minute strike the Fishermen took complete control with midfielder Jason Webber using the ball well. There was some fine football on display from the Fishermen's promising young side which augurs well for the Club's future.

DIVISION FIVE
AWLISCOMBE 3
MILLWEY RISE 3

IN THE opening minutes the "Awls" showed their intent when a Stuart McKay shot was deflected, via a Millwey defender, into the net.

Millwey's equaliser came in the 12th minute from a Keith Forsey shot which rocketed past the keeper. Awliscombe kept up the pressure and a fierce shot from Steve Noon was tipped over the bar by keeper Jack Bennet. Benjamin Gay then took advantage of Millwey's defensive lethargy to put the home side in the lead just before half time.

The second period started off with more of the same, before Tyler Warren was called from the bench and instantly made an impression with some raking passes. He was soon followed by Sam Wad-don making his first appearance for Millwey's senior side.

In the 70th minute Pete Nelson put Awliscombe further ahead when he got on the end of a free kick after a Millwey infringement. The visitors gradually pulled themselves back into the game when skipper Nathan Womersley scrambled the ball into the net. Farrant then showed why he was worthy of a mention when he chased back from his berth on the right wing to intercept an Awliscombe forward in the Millwey penalty area to avert the imminent danger. Womersley then went close a couple of times before a superb free kick from Warren gave the visitors an draw.

DIVISION EIGHT
MILLWEY RISE RES 3
CHERTON FITZPAINE RES 1

THE "Rise" probably scored the upset of the day when they desevledly defeated Division 8 League leaders 3-1.

They took the lead in the tenth minute from a penalty slotted home by James Morgan. Stuart King made it two when he netted mid-way through the half.

A minute before the break Cherton came back into the game with a goal. Twenty minutes into the second period Chris Lusby made it three for the home side. Cherton then fluffed an opportunity to close the gap when they failed to score from a penalty.

This was Millwey's best performance of the Season to date and augers well for the coming games. Leon Best had a great first half but MOM was Stuart King in his forward role.

Millwey are on the road to Amory Green Rovers next week KO 2-15pm

DEVON & EXETER LEAGUE
Round up

with Colin Goodwin

JORDY Burrows bagged a brace as Cronies stormed to a 4-0 success over Exmouth Town.

Sitting in second in the Premier League, Exmouth are one of just two teams to have beaten Cronies in the league since the Exeter side began four years ago. But they were no match in their first-ever Premier League clash.

Liam Carey converted a penalty and an own goal moved Cronies into the top four.

Feniton pocketed maximum points from a 3-1 win at Hatherleigh Town. Ben Allen struck twice before Danny Lewis hit a belter. Hatherleigh are still searching for their first points.

Colyton returned from Millbridge in the Firewatch Devon Senior Cup third round with a magnificent 9-0 victory under their belts and a place in the last 16.

First Division leaders Lyme Regis suffered a 4-1 defeat at the University and their lead is now down to a point over Lapford, who won a gripping game against Perry Street 4-3.

Bampton stay top of Division Two following their emphatic 4-0 win at Axmouth United. They remain two points clear of Woodbury, who were 1-0 winners at home to Thorverton, and also Bow AAC, who won 2-1 at East Budleigh. Gavin Coles and Dean Partridge scored for Bow.

Upplowman put on an excellent display to win 3-0 at Honiton Town. Matt Smith, Jordan O'Leary and George Mackerness shared the Upplowman goals.

Kyle Costa and Simon Piper were on target for Newtown in their 2-1 win at Axminster.

A Ben Sharland hat-trick proved decisive for Culm United in their 6-2 win at Ilminster Town in Division Five. Conor Joyce, Tom Mortiboys, and Alex Ansell also scored.

Halwill won 3-2 at Lyme Regis thanks to a Darren Webber hat-trick. Ryan Fifer and Al-istair Rattenbury were the Lyme scorers.

Offwell Rangers were unable to raise a side for the visit of Elmore.

PERRY STREET LEAGUE
Round up

with Howard Larcombe

MISTERTON began life under new manager Jason Mallett in perfect fashion.

They clinched a 3-2 penalty shoot-out win at Chard United in the quarter-finals of the Coronation Cup after the teams had finished up 2-2 after extra-time.

The revised semi-final draw now reads: Winsham United v Merriott Rovers or Pymore; Bampton v Misterton.

Division One Cup holders Forton Rangers were awarded a free passage into the semi-finals of the competition when Drimpton once again disappointingly pulled their team out of the league. After having an excellent 2015-16 campaign Drimpton, who suffered a mass exodus of players, folded during last season and have never fully recovered.

Forton's opponents in the semi-final will be Farway United who had few problems in disposing of Shepton Beauchamp Reserves 4-0. Farway only had the bare 11 players but were 3-0 up inside 15 minutes through Liam Spiller, Jack Murrell and Ben Fullick.

Spiller netted his second near the end while Farway chairman Steve Loud picked out Billy Reed as his man of the match after he climbed off his hospital bed to play a full 90 minutes. Meanwhile Waytown Hounds won 3-0 at 2013-14 champions Perry Street Reserves and will now travel to face Halstock with a place in the final at stake. A three-goal sec- ond-half blitz from Jon Legg (2) and James Loveridge, returning after an 18-month lay-off with an ACL injury, saw the Hounds through.

The semi-final draw is: Halstock v Waytown Hounds; Farway United v Forton Rangers.

In the Premier Division, Shepton Beauchamp ended a four-game losing slump in style with a 6-0 hammering of hosts Combe Reserves, who are yet to bank a point.

Struggling Pymore failed to raise a team for the visit of Bampton, who signed former Misterton player-manager Scott Jennings in midweek. The 31-year-old has almost 200 PSDL goals to his name having previously played for Merriott Rovers, Ilminster Town, Shepton Beauchamp and Crewkerne Town.

West & Middle Chinnock's first home league match ended in a narrow 4-3 defeat at the hands of Merriott Rovers, who moved six points clear at the top spot. Rovers flew out of the blocks and were 3-0 up inside ten minutes through Dave John, Liam Riste and Craig Gosney. But the Chins recovered and pulled one back courtesy of Liam Bennett before half-time.

A George Trott free-kick then cut the deficit to 3-2 before Riste scored his second and Merriott's fourth five minutes from time.

The hosts kept battling away and Alex Eckland netted their third late on, while Merriott manager Matt Bisgrove picked out 16-year-old Jake Pippard as his man of the match.

South Petherton remain in second spot after a 5-1 win over Winsham United. Pethy led 2-0 through Dave Smith and Mark Tweedie at half-time and while the visitors pulled one back, Smith went on to score twice more to complete his hat-trick and former Netherbury winger Mark Cuff made it 5-1 late on. Ilminster Town Colts extended their unbeaten league run to nine matches with a 3-1 win over lowly Chard Rangers in Division One.

It's leaders Halstock who have emerged as the team to beat after thrashing Uplyme 6-0 at Venlake. James Parrett led the way with a treble while Ben Brister bagged a brace and Darren House had the other.

Division Two pacesetters Forton Rangers Reserves remain unbeaten after a 2-1 win over South Petherton Reserves.

Charmouth bounced back from last week's defeat with a 3-0 win at Winsham United Reserves who have now lost six on the spin. Dan Rendell opened the scoring with his 100th goal for the club and added number two before Brin Seward, on target for the seventh game in succession, rounded things off. Top scorers in the entire league Thornecombe are up to third after an 8-3 win over Kingsbury who had Dan Neate, Jack French and Jack Thompson scoring their consolation.

Delighted Donyatt United emerged with all three points from a top-versus-second clash in Division Three with Ilminster Town A, who finally lost their 100 per cent record via the 3-2 defeat.

Merriott Dynamos are hot on the heels of the leading pair thanks to a 3-1 win over Crewkerne Rangers Reserves.

Netherbury Reserves were the day's top scorers as they demolished Chard Rangers Res 10-0.

FOLLOWING the washout on Monday, 56 members of the Senior Section took part in a four man best 2 from 4 competition. In fine weather, the teams produced some excellent scoring.

Two teams, one led by Toss Smith, and the other by Nick Gabb finished well ahead of the field, both posting identical scores of 90 points.

Result: 1. Toss Smith; Chris Gingell; Martin Leigh & John Wandless 90 points. 2. Nick Gabb; Frank Martin; Paul Prendergast & Barrie Heath 90 points. 3. Dick Hall; Bob Rees; Peter Spencer-Farr & Ed Williams 83 points.

The continual good weather enticed 60 members of the Seniors to enter a three man Texas Scramble on Wednesday. There was a tight finish with the side led by Alan Davis emerging victors with a sub 60 round, beating their nearest rivals by 1.84 shots.

Result: 1. Alan Davis; Paul Prendergast & Peter Spencer-Farr 59.83. 2. Nick Clarke; John Pearce & John Wallis 61.67. 3. Bill Hilson; John McDonald & Chris Basterfield 63.67.

Meanwhile, the Saints Senior match team travelled to Enmore Park for their final match of the year, hoping to finish with a win and to complete the double over the Stags. This was not to be as the first three games were all lost. A win in game four gave a glimmer of hope, and although two of the final three games were halved, the home team emerged as victors by 5-2.

Results: Alan Chance & Mike King lost by 3 & 2. George Wallace & John Wandless lost by 4 & 3.

Barrie Heath & Frank Martin lost by 6 & 5. Chris Gingell & James Siabi won by 2 & 1. Stuart Pope & Andy Beale lost by 5 & 4. Roger Davis & Martin Bargery halved. Nobby Holder & Barrie Singleton halved.

HONITON with Ann Desmoulin

Tuesday Mixed: Following several days of very wet weather and the course being closed, we were lucky that the course re-opened in time for the Tuesday Mixed Competition. However, the wet conditions prevented the use of buggies and this precluded several people from taking part and reduced the field to 22 players. The format was an American Foursomes and the winners, with 39 points, were Vicki Rogers and Jason Gosling. Second and third places were decided on count-back, with both pairs scoring 34 points. In second place were Georgie Hope-Edwards and Laurie Tollemaiche.

(19 on the back 9), followed by Cathy Uttley and Paul Ritchie (17 on back 9).

Ladies: Last weeks' action was the annual fun competition in support of Children in Need. A shot-gun start had the ladies wondering if the competition would go ahead at all given the recent weather. However, the weather relented and in spite of the very wet conditions on the course, most of the 18 holes were played in sunshine. A 3bb1 Stableford with 2 scores to count was the format of the day with partners drawn (one from each division where possible, although there were some dubious combinations!). The winning combination was Henrietta Bradshaw, Sheila Palmer and Olwen Eaton with 70 points, and the best front 9 holes was achieved by Lesley Oxenham, Sue Kelson and Tricia Swindell with 37 points. All proceeds, including a bucket collection in the clubhouse afterwards raised a great total of £162 which was donated to Children in Need.

Seniors: The recent poor weather relented just in time on Friday to enable the Seniors to have their last medal competition of the year. With a low sun, wet grass and the autumn leaves to contend with speed around the course was not great. Of the nearly sixty members who did play there were some nil returns - due to all these factors. There were no two's achieved so the ball sweep was decided by a random draw of four cards. Division two was won by Mike Jones with his 72, followed by Bill Phillips, Sydney Martin and Phil Faulkner - all with 76. David Pearson was fifth with his 77. Division one winner, and the monthly medal, was Roger Edwards with his 69. Dave Maggs was second (72) followed by Paul Ritchie (73) Bill Eaton (74) and David Woodruff (75).

Unbeaten starts ended

Chard 3 St Austell 20

Western Counties West

CHARD surrendered their unbeaten record to high flying St Austell on Saturday in a display that was high in effort and enthusiasm but poor in execution particularly when in good attacking situations.

Chard started the game brightly and took the game immediately to their opponents but lost the ball close to the try line and a swift counter attack saw them losing a lot of ground. However Chard responded and were awarded a penalty which Charlie Roberts comfortably slotted to put the hosts 3pts ahead.

St Austell looked a really competent workman like team and were particularly good at disrupting any Chard play and it was no surprise when they broke clear and winger Chris Ashton scored an unconverted in the right hand corner after twelve minutes 3-5

St Austell were testing Chard up front more than any other opposition so far this season and having won some more turnover ball Max Dugan went over for a second unconverted try. 3-10

As well as losing possession too many times Chard were also guilty of conceding lots of penalties which hardly helped their cause.

Shortly before the interval St Austell scored their best try when Liam Freeman went over. He also took over the kicking duties and converted the try.

H/T 3-17

Despite being behind Chard were certainly not out of things but unfortunately conceded a penalty within minutes of the restart which Freeman goaled. 3-20

Almost immediately Chard had a penalty in front of the posts but for reasons known only to themselves decided to go for the corner even though there was still 35minutes left in the game. Surely in a tight game you take all guaranteed points on offer?

Despite an error ridden performance several Chard players had very good games notably Ben Stead, Jason Wright, Scott Johnson and Billy Biss. In addition Roberts had kicked beautifully out of hand all afternoon.

The rest of the game was very evenly contested but the St Austell defence was very sound and they fully deserved their win.

Chard are away at Sidmouth next Saturday kick off 2.30pm and will be hoping to take as strong a team as possible against the basement team but one who beat St Austell in the opening game of the season!!

Chard Colts 0 Taunton Colts 39

Somerset Two South

CHARD'S unbeaten run so far this season came to an end when they hosted Taunton on the main ground under lights on Friday evening in front of a 200+ crowd.

It wasn't a case of Chard playing badly but more a case of Taunton being a very good team indeed.

They were fast, skilful and aggressive. A good combination!

Chard competed well particularly in the lineout but were unable to make too much of the ball won because of an excellent Taunton defence.

Niall Crouch made several good penetrating runs for Chard and really deserved to score but it was not to be.

Chard will certainly have learnt things from this defeat particularly the importance of first up tackles and getting cover in place from well directed kicks into their own half.

The colts are next in action when they host Castle Cary on 12th November.

Chicks take down Panthers

USUALLY, the Honiton Netball League has a break over half terms, but due to bad weather calling off division 1 games earlier on in the season, it meant the matches were rescheduled for Monday, October 23rd 2017.

Due to it being half term, High Tide found it difficult to raise a full team. However, that didn't deter them and they entered the court with 5 players - down 2. Blackdown took full advantage of this and maintained 7 players resulting in an obvious win, although the goal margin was not as wide as what might have been expected. The match ended 29-11. Bea Bandyszewska stood out as the star player for Blackdown whilst Jasmine Wellman picked up the award for High Tide.

HNC 3Ts were up against Hi Q. Hi Q got off to a sensational start led by Laura French's skilful shooting. Hi Q scored 15 goals to 3Ts 4 in the first quarter. 3Ts continued to score 4 more in the second quarter and slowed Hi Q down slightly with some good defending, especially from goal defence - Codie Houndsell. However, after half-time, Hi Q came back refreshed and driven; they managed to net 15 goals in the third quarter leaving 3Ts only managing to score 2. Hi Q continued to take full control of the game, ending the match 54 - 11.

Last week, TNC Otters and HNC Hot Shots were sitting at second and third place in the table - drawing on 6 points each and a goal difference of only 2 goals separated them. Otters got off to a winning start and held a comfortable lead in the first 3 quarters with some skilful defending from Amy Colwill as Otters' goal defence. Hot Shots' resilience and strong will power showed in the final quarter when they netted 14 goals. Otters scooped the important victory in this top of the table clash, ending the game 37-32.

The final match was between Panthers and Sidmouth Chicks. It started off extremely close; the teams were drawing 6-6 after the first quarter. By the end of the second and third quarter, Chicks led each time by only a couple of goals. Going into the final quarter, Chicks found a new lease of life which led them to out-play and out score their opponents resulting in them picking up 3 points after a clear win of 27-18. Once again, Anna Benson of Panthers picked up the POTM award for her excellent defensive display as goal defence whilst Chicks' young Darcy Hastie was awarded the accolade for her work as goal shooter.

AXE VALLEY RUNNERS with Dave Mutter

THREE Axe Valley Runners made the long journey up to North Wales for the 35th Marathon Eyrir or Snowdonia Marathon. Considered by some the best marathon in the UK it is also a very challenging route with very steep ascents throughout as it circles Snowdon. Alan Morbey and Margaret Pearce ran together finishing 1027th and 1028th in 4:27:08 with Angela Kerr 1833rd, 5:18:09. There were 2210 finishers.

Jake Smith smashed his PB at the latest Seaton parkrun, winning in 15:46. Simon Fisher of Oxford City AC was 2nd, 17:22 and Oliver Thorogood of Aberystwyth AC 3rd, 18:28. First lady home was Alexandra Cutts of SWRR, 7th overall in 19:33.

■ EYRI RUN: Axe Valley Runners' Margaret Pearce, Alan Morbey and Angela Kerr at the Snowdonia Marathon miles, with the race opening up James and Andrew pushed on to the halfway point, Bernie Genge was pushing hard into the second half moving into the top 30 slots, Paul Masters was starting to fatigue in the long climb out of Newton Abbott for the second time, with the miles passing James was having to fight a sore knee but with the Support of Andrew Leeson they were able to keep going. Heading into the finish line first for CRR's was Bernie Genge in a time of 3h 31m 52.24/114, next was Paul Masters 4h 09m 18s 60/114, with James Musselwhite completing his first Marathon in a time of 4h 29m 11s 77/114 with Andrew Leeson crossing in 4h 29m 14s 78/114.

Heading off as the sole runner for CRR's in the Dartmoor Vale Half Marathon was Nina Wagstaff, who was off fast from the start, taking in the early part of the race picking off runners as the gradient increased with the last of the main climb out the way Nina kept the pressure on and eased into the long downhill section. Entering back in towards the start and Nina had pushed onto the Top 30 and with a final push crossed the line in 1h 35m 13s 25/209

Next Race was the Herepath Half a hilly off-road trail race heading out of Thurlbear with the route taking in the Blackdown Hills, Running in CRR's colours were Matt Saunders, Adrian Male and Claire Gibbs. With the first ½ mile being a road field and road section Matt Saunders took a charge to avoid the narrow track and picked off some good places, Adrian Male having taken a last minute entry set off at good pace to ease himself in, Claire Gibbs set deep into the pack to make her way up the long climb to Staple Hill, with the Mid section providing some good soft trail running (muddy) which provided a lot of entertainment, with the long downhill running to the finish it was Matt Saunderson that led the run into the line crossing in 1h 55m 34s 30th position, Adrian Male was next in a tight run to the line in 2h 08m 58s 70th and with a sprint into the finish Claire Gibbs crossed in 3h 23m 45s 162nd

HONITON RUNNING CLUB with Judy Davey

ROGER Saunders, Bridget Taviner and Claire Rouse travelled to the south coast on Sunday, October 22nd, to do the Great South Run which is a 10 mile run that takes in Old Portsmouth, the Dockyard, and multiple passes along the sea front with the last two miles into the wind.

Roger had somehow missed the fact that there 20,000 other runners in the race and so found he was not able to stretch his legs for the first five miles but still managed to finish in 1:18:13. Claire really enjoyed the route and finished in a very respectable time of 1:34:10. This was Bridget's first long race and was pleased to finish in a time of 1:45:07 and really enjoyed the route. The race was won by Chris Thompson in a time of 00:48:32.

Honiton runners Mark Dallyn and Howard Bidmead travelled to the Exmoor coast in North Devon last Sunday to take part in the Exmoor trail running events. Mark tackled the half marathon and Howard the 10k. This was pure trail running with both distances starting in the Doone valley before ascending the longest climb on Exmoor of nearly three miles. The runners were met with a variety of weather conditions from sun, drizzle and a chilly wind once at the top of the moor. At the top stunning views across the Severn estuary towards South Wales made the strenuous Climb worth the effort. From here Howard descended back towards the finish area and crossed the line in 59m 58s to finish first in his age group. Mark continued on the longer route where the race took in the South West Coast path. Mark enjoyed his run and took some amazing photographs. He finished in 2hr. 33m.

Chard battle to win

Chard A 5
Sidmouth & Ottery B 3
CHARD showed character and composure to claim the spoils and the points in this topsy turvy fixture.

A goal down early on when the visitors took advantage of keeper Richard Green getting his feet in a tangle. Jason Goddard, grabbed an equaliser and then Gareth Eggle put Chard ahead.

The second half saw Chard start with the sharper, and they had the ball in the net only for the goal to be disallowed, but minutes later a mistake by the keeper saw Eggle put Chard 3-1 up.

Sidmouth reduced the arrears with a goal from a penalty corner, and a bizarre sequence of deflections saw the ball stabbed in from close range to square the scores.

Rediscovering their best form, Chard grabbed two goals within 60 seconds of oneanother in the final five minutes secured the victory, Goddard scoring his second and Denning firing the fifth.
